Convention

What You Will Find at Spring Lake

ARE YOU toying with the idea of attending convention? Are you asking yourself if, in these days of recessions and depressions, the week at Spring Lake will be worth the time and money spent? Have you the idea that a convention revolves around the official delegates only?

"We no longer question the 'why' of convention" the last KAPPA ALPHA THETA said. Surely every Theta realizes its necessity and its tremendous value to the fraternity; but the success of a convention is in direct proportion to the breadth and variety of the opinions represented there. The wisdom and enthusiastic interest of every Theta is essential in this time of conflicting theories, to plan the policies of the Theta of the future.

But this is only one of the values of a convention. For there will be gathered together college women of all ages, of widely divergent backgrounds, speaking a score of accents, representing every type of Canadian and American. Just being part of such a group is thrilling and stimulating. Never was there so great a need as there is today for unity of purpose and of spirit among the English speaking people of this continent. Never was there offered a better opportunity to learn to know and understand such a group, as at Theta's thirty-fourth biennial convention.

Vacation! Everyone thrills to the thought of going somewhere—anywhere. Reading time tables, studying road maps, riding on the Theta special, all those experiences in themselves are worth any amount of planning and budgeting. Imagine how excited you will feel inside as you casually remark, "Oh yes,

I am going to spend a week at the Essex and Sussex." Any vacation includes a big hotel, sports, and social life. But where, except at a Theta convention, can you enjoy these things with so congenial a group—and at a reduced rate?

CLOTHES

What will the well-dressed conventionite wear? We wish we knew! (The weather of the last week in June is uncertain in these parts.) But one thing is certain. Leave your red flannels at home, for summer clothes will be in order. Don't forget, however, to bring a top coat for the cool ocean breezes, and an umbrella so it won't rain. We feel sure that sweaters, slacks and shorts will be much in evidence. Pack your bathing suit first of all. Pack two if you have them. A beach robe will help to prevent the severe cases of sunburn that catch one unsuspecting—even on our private beach.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING

We have not mentioned all the social events which the district has in store for you, but we must save some details as a surprise. The chapters and clubs in District VII are sitting up late nights making plans for parties to entertain you. A tea on Saturday afternoon, an informal party and reception at night, with Nike and initiation on Sunday, will fill the week-end. We expect a full moon for the beach party Monday.

COSTUME PARTY

On Tuesday there will be a fancy dress party where every one is to wear a costume typical of the year in which her chapter was chartered. Make it as authentic as you can, because you may win a prize. Wednesday will be the Day of Rest, with no business sessions, and the entire group will go off on trips or laze on the beach, as the notion strikes them. Thursday will close convention with the formal banquet, the only time when evening clothes will be popular.

Are you convinced that you must go to Spring Lake? We have one more cat to pull out of the bag. Don't tell your husbands, but Theta Delta Chi is having its convention right next door to us, from the twenty-fifth to the twenty-eighth!

So put down your magazine and write at once for your room reservation. We'll see you there.

ELEANOR DILWORTH
Assistant Convention manager

AN INVITATION

The Baltimore Thetas will be eagerly awaiting the first of July when the group taking the southern trip will spend the afternoon with them. We hope that there will be time for a trip around Baltimore and down to Annapolis, with tea and a cool place to chat, before the boat sails for Norfolk. Be sure to sign up at convention, if you will let us entertain you that day.

Notes

CONVENTION visitors from the south will write to Mrs Brown (see March magazine) for berths from Washington to Spring Lake. She will plan their entire schedules, if they wish. They arrive in Washington too late probably, to take part in the entire day's pilgrimage, but may have an afternoon of sight-seeing and join the group dinner.

For post-convention visitors to New York, there will be a map of the city at the Information booth, and other material of interest.

Recommended hotels, scattered about as to location, are the Biltmore, at 43d and Madison, Beekman tower over on the East river at 3 Beekman place, the A.W.A. clubhouse, 353 W. 57th st., and the Earle, a nice small place on Washington square, in Greenwich village. Reservation for New York hotels can be made at convention.

Many people going up to New York will doubtless stay with friends or wish to settle down in a hotel recommended by the folks at home. For such visitors we have arranged that they may be included in the sight-seeing tour and the visits to Radio city and the NBC studios for which we have secured a group rate.

The price of these expeditions will be $3.05.

On the hotel reservation blank published last month there were noted rates at "3 in a room" and "4 in a room." Perusal of the detailed discussion in the accompanying article should make plain that the accommodations for parties of 3 and 4 are in adjoining rooms (2 persons to a room) with connecting bath.

CORRECTION. Common sense would indicate that the train bearing our visitors from the northwest would not be scheduled to arrive in Chicago five hours after the special train left, but all doubts can be set at rest. The train arrives at 8:40 A.M.

REGISTRATION FEE. This fee, paid by each Theta attending convention, will be $7.50. This will cover all tips, a subscription to the daily Kite, and the cost of all entertainments and favors. A pro rata schedule of payment for late arrivals will be posted at the Registration booth.

NOTE: New address of convention manager, Mrs Y. B. Huffman, 720 N. 58th st. Omaha, Neb.

RESERVATION COUPONS

Must be received by June 15

Only a few of the featured events for this convention appear in this skeleton program.

The theme of convention is Achievement. Many Thetas who are "known to fame" (who have achieved) will be among the speakers. Pictorially the achievements of the fraternity and Panhellenic will be demonstrated. Every meal will be AN EVENT, with a special hostess club or chapter in charge of the program. Song fests, and music by talented Thetas who have achieved will add to the pleasure, as will many things as yet "secrets" of the Executive committee, New York alumnæ chapter.

Latest News Flash from Chicago

ALL THETAS arriving in Chicago Thursday morning, June 23, come directly to the Palmer house, State and Monroe streets, where a suite of rooms will be provided for your convenience. The bulletin board and information desk on the lobby floor will give you the room numbers. At 10:00 A.M. private cars will be at the Monroe street entrance of the hotel to take you on a tour to the campus of the University of Chicago or Northwestern university. Arrangements for luncheon for visitors and Chicago area Thetas have been made at the Narcissus room, 7th floor at Marshall Fields' at 12:30

P.M. We hope you'll join us!

If you will notify Mrs W. G. Brown, 105 W. Adams st. Chicago, who is supervising our special train, she will have some one meet you at the station and relieve you of your baggage. Otherwise take a Parmalee bus or a taxi to the Grand Central station, Harrison and Wells, and check your baggage at the parcel room, then proceed on to the Palmer house, where we'll be waiting for you.

(West Side, South Side, North Side, Oak Park, Gary-Hammond, business group and Evanston Thetas are the hostess "we" of this flash.)

The Day in Washington

WASHINGTON alumnae are planning an active day for all visiting delegates and passengers of the special train as it stops over June 24. It will be advisable to breakfast on the train before it arrives in Washington, as the whole day will be needed for their plans. A group of local Thetas will meet the early morning trains and take visitors directly to the special sight-seeing buses engaged for the day. Then starts an extensive trip around the city, which will occupy the morning and include visits to new government buildings, as well as to all well-known landmarks.

From Washington Thetas will drive to Alexandria by way of the new George Washington memorial highway for a substantial luncheon at the George Mason hotel. This should be a gala affair with Geno Herrick as hostess. So refreshed, they may visit some of the historic spots of the town before driving on to Mount Vernon. At Washington's old home there will be ample time to wander through the spacious rooms and boxwood gardens drinking in the unique atmosphere of Colonial Virginia. On the return trip will be Arlington and the home of Robert E. Lee, which has been restored recently and furnished in the most authentic manner.

At 5:30 after a fascinating, but long and probably hot, day of sight-seeing Thetas will board the City of Washington for a cool twilight trip of twenty miles down the Potomac river and back again. On the boat will be relaxation with simple thirst-quenching refreshments, enjoyment of newly made friends, and a last glimpse of Arlington and Mount Vernon. The boat returns at 7:45 and all will go at once to 2400 16th street for a welcome dinner in restful surroundings. The rest of the evening is free until the train leaves for Spring Lake at 11:30, but of course there will be a group of local Thetas on hand to help in passing the time.

Expenses for the day:

Convention music's success will be assured if every Theta attending knows all session and ceremonial songs, while at least a bowing acquaintance with group 3 will add to the hilarity of food and frolics. Please learn these songs just as they are printed in the 1931 edition of the songbook. Every chapter has its own ruggedly individual version of each song, but for the sake of unity and harmony in convention warbling, STICK TO THE SONGBOOK.

Luncheon in Alexandria	$1.00
River trip	.50
Dinner at 2400 16th st.	1.25
Transportation (about)	.25

Reservations can be made for the bus trip with luncheon at Alexandria, the boat trip, or the dinner separately. Those arriving on late trains may skip the sight-seeing and join the party on the boat, which leaves from the 7th street wharves at 5:30 P.M. Many Thetas from Baltimore and other nearby places who cannot go to convention will enjoy spending at least part of the day with the convention-bound party, we hope. Those who travel on the Theta special need not make reservations. Others should notify Charlotte Feazel, 1016 16th street, a day in advance.

Sportive?

SPRING LAKE affords opportunities for almost any sport in which you care to indulge. You supply the clothes, we'll supply the ocean, sand, tennis courts, swimming pool, golf, riding and sun (we hope!).

That "puddle" we easterners call the Atlantic ocean should be large enough for all the Thetas, and should appeal especially to you mid-westerners. The expanse of private beach gives ample room to sun the "body beautiful." And for you more active ones there are such beach sports as beach-ball, tag, or you might try your hand at building sand castles. Incidentally, if the ocean is too harsh, or the weather too cool, there is an indoor swimming pool just a few steps from the Essex and Sussex where you can prove your natatory skill.

The two fine tennis courts right at the front door beckon you. Tournaments will be arranged—a chance for you champions to exhibit your form. Who knows, perhaps there is another Helen Jacobs in our ranks.

Fore! The hotel has bus service to two nearby golf courses, so if you bring your clubs you'll find something more to wax enthusiastic over. There will be an equal opportunity for golfers, as well as tennis fiends, to enter into competition—in a golf tournament.

You fair equestriennes will be glad to know that the riding facilities are simply wonderful. The horses are brought right to the hotel. One of the most exclusive eastern horse shows is held at Spring Lake each year, and the possibilities of a Theta show are high.

A warning!—We suggest you all bring raincoats to ward off old Jupiter Pluvius. If you don't heed this "sage" advice, it's sure to pour. So be sure to make room somewhere, somehow.

Yours until convention,

ALPHA KAPPA

Driving?

SPRING LAKE is eminently accessible by car. Seasoned New Jersey travelers say that the roads are perfect, and much time is saved by the intelligent way in which the Creator flattened out the central New Jersey countryside. There are superb new highways. New Jersey road maps may be secured from the Commissioner of motor vehicles, State house, Trenton, N.J. or from almost any gas station en route. You may want to have your New Jersey map before starting, so as to pick the best and newest roads from your state. Hotel offers free garage.

Here are some distances to encourage you to take your car:

Philadelphia—83 miles
Jersey City—62 miles
Newark—56 miles
New York—64 miles

Thetas in eastern Canada, Vermont, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland, Washington, Virginia—pile in your cars and start out!

Wenatchee, Oregon, Pi Beta Phi alumnae sponsored the Panhellenic luncheon this year March 23. Miss Mary Bash, assistant Dean of women at the University of Washington was the main speaker. Thetas there were Mrs Myron Foster, Mrs Elmer Kerns, Mrs Harry Miller, Miss Jean Vermilya, Mrs E. M. Flood and Mrs R. M. Hylton.

Kappa Kappa Gamma at Illinois had a book drive: in the fall each girl brought back one book that she particularly liked. The chapter then had a book dinner, using these gifts as table centerpieces, and after dinner each girl told why she liked the book she contributed.

At another house the library committee members are always prepared to review one or more books, and do so whenever chapter meeting ends unexpectedly early.

Γ Φ Β—Crescent, Feb. '38

I dare say the chapter will have plenty of problems in the next four years, but these should be recognized as inevitable and anticipated as far as possible. The members of the chapter may study labor problems, industrial relations, personnel administration, employment management, human engineering—call it what you will—in their college courses to fit them for future executive tasks, but the chapter house will be the real laboratory for the testing and application of what they have learned. Out of a solving of each problem as it arises will come a spirit of brotherhood that cannot help but be reflected favorably on the campus.

The chapter leaders will need to display real leadership: strengthening weaker brothers, changing the bookishly inclined into social beings, making butterflies more serious and always avoiding the formation of unhealthy cliques. A big job? Yes, but so is running a modern corporation, and our colleges and fraternities are pledged to the task of producing men who can qualify as leaders.—B Θ Π, Dec. '37.

Loan and Fellowship Fund Policy

Why should Kappa Alpha Theta consider the future policy of its fund at the coming convention?

Because, since the fund was started in 1902, many universities have acquired large sums to use for student loans, scholarships, fellowships.

Because today entrance into many professions and vocations requires at least one year's technical training after the bachelor's degree has been attained; and that extra year—with no degree as its goal—is most difficult to finance.

Because adult women, suddenly thrown upon their own resources, need to return to college to freshen up their training, so as to earn a living for themselves and their dependents.

Because the times call for women trained to advance and improve conditions of life, rather than to do research simply for the advancement of their own professional standing.

Because the acceleration in Theta's fund, through the "extra dollar" from initiation fees and the magazine agency profits, provides more cash to be translated into service.

Needs may have changed in kind, but they have grown in scope.

Scholarship Help

IN THE first place the scholarship chairman of each chapter should have as much cooperation as the social chairman. She should plan as carefully, choose assistants with as much judgment, and expect as definite results. Parties that the actives have today are different in character from the ones held ten years ago; why do the attempts at controlled scholarship follow the same old pattern year after year? The chapters at the various colleges don't hold identical entertainments; surely it is idle to expect each chapter to employ the same methods of study-supervision. The most important step in the general renovation of ideas on the subject is to discard all the old devices that have become habits rather than helps. After that the chapters may consider their particular problems without reference to past practices.

Since the freshman class usually bears the brunt of conscience pangs regarding scholarship, it may as well serve as an example here to illustrate what it meant by suiting the methods of supervision to the chapter involved. Suppose the class is a large one. Why not allow the members free swing in conducting their study until mid-term grades are out? At that time they can be separated into I, II, and III groups according to their accomplishments. The first, high-rating group may then continue to pursue their courses in freedom. The second group would require adjustments relating to participation in outside activities, followed by regulation of study hours, and reports of progress to the scholarship chairman. The last group would have, besides the study schedule, tutoring and advice from an upperclassman in individual instances.

If freshman habits of efficient study can be established along with painless orientation to college life, it is reasonable to predict that students in the upper brackets will continue in the ways of scholastic virtue. Until such is the case there must be some means of dealing with other class members who have failed to make their adjustments in the first year. I mentioned before that freshmen who are experiencing excessive difficulties in their studies should have tutoring from upperclassmen. This is the ideal spot for the upperclassman who is still experiencing difficulties in his work—ideal; that is, in the sense of the double bird-killing. It is perfectly true that he who teaches, learns best. The English major of doubtful standing who coaches the English composition student is helping himself as well. As a person tries to explain an idea to another, he clarifies the idea for himself.

When the chapter is small, or the freshman class a small one, it is obvious that the problems of the individual can receive more attention. It may not be necessary to have everyone conform to a fixed schedule regarding study. In any case, it is to be hoped that no chapter still employs the old, ineffectual "study-table" contrivance. To gather a group of girls with dissimilar academic interests, and assorted assignments around a table for the alleged purpose of study is and always has been a subterfuge.

Even with the "study-table" abolished forever, it is still true that the most important element in any group achievement is the steady, day-after-day insistence on a planned routine, always excepting those who are able to maintain a standard of excellence while enjoying complete liberty. At best, any chapter-house measures to insure consistent application to studies are super-imposed motivation. As such they must be regarded as discipline and conducted with the same vigilance.

Theoretically, the spectacle of a number of college students being coerced and exhorted to study is an absurd paradox. Realistically, we must admit that the psychology of the little red schoolhouse still prevails in the institutions of higher learning and that there is no one to wield the hickory stick unless the fraternity assumes the task. $\Delta \Gamma$ Anchora

About Buying Books

FROM THOSE revealing conversations which invariably follow discussions of books and personal libraries, I have discovered budding bibliophiles whose shelves would be weighed down with fine books, if they only knew more about buying and collecting. Most of these avid young readers confess that they are hampered by slender means; but there are others who can afford frequent purchases who do not trust their own judgment, especially when it comes to buying first editions, fine bindings, or autographed volumes.

When advised to haunt the second-hand book-stores, they reply that they have tried that, but they could never find exactly what they wanted. Well, there is something of an art in excavating the treasures of these not infrequently dim and forbidding shops. It is not mastered by rushing in and requesting a best-seller of the gentle but tweedy person in charge. One must browse slowly, inquiringly, shelf by shelf. After a decent interval, the shop-owner or one of his clerks (it is usually difficult to tell one from the other, nor does it matter) will saunter over and ask if he can be of any help. This moment should be the beginning of a beautiful friendship. Yet, should the shopper's answer indicate a preference for "low-brow" literature, he will lose his chance to become one of the inner circle of patrons for whom the best is sought.

To get off on the right foot, one must have a favorite author whose name is respected. There is never anything but a warm response to the mention, for instance, of Lafcadio Hearn, H. M. Tomlinson, Robert Frost, or Robinson Jeffers. But, the mention must be supplemented by more than a superficial knowledge of the author's work.

If the prospective buyer has not yet decided to collect the work of any individual writer, he should be pursuing some special subject—music, art, travel, science, or history. Referring to any one of these, he is able to speak with some assurance of various authors and volumes. The bookseller, of course, knows them, too. As a matter of fact, he just yesterday brought back from an auction an item that should be of interest. Thus, are the first important purchases made.

What if the reader has no special preference in either authors or subjects? How is he to remember the important titles of last year and before? The solution lies in keeping files of clippings and reviews from the better critical magazines. From these sources he may compose a list of "must's" which should, by now, be found on the used-book shelves. Such preparedness seldom fails to thaw out the crustiest book merchant. He will probably have on hand only one or two of the books desired, but he will know when and where the others can be obtained, or he will bring out a few items that might make suitable substitutions.

Rare books, those out-of-print, fine bindings? As the trips to the shop become more frequent, and the collector learns more about the stock, he will gain in appreciation and confidence. A day will come when the shop is quiet enough for the dealer to chat confidentially. Without warning, he will burrow into a stack, and emerge with a book which he will handle carefully and reverently. He will discuss the author, the date, the binding, the format, the typography, and the contents with the enthusiasm of a bond salesman—but he isn't selling a gold-brick. He is giving the tyro a lesson in book-lore. The more the bibliophile learns, the better customer he becomes.

Within a year, the collector who frequents a book bazaar will have a sizeable library of books on many subjects, and the shelves will have been filled without any extraordinary expenditures. His titles will attract other less-fortunate or less-active readers. Since libraries were started that books might be shared, one finds it difficult to deny those who wish to borrow. If one must lend, he should jot down the date, the name and telephone number of the borrower, on a card index which should be kept just for the purpose of tracing and retrieving one's errant volumes.

And the volume itself should bear some identification mark—a dignified and individual bookplate, or merely the owner's name and the date of acquisition. There is a distinct feeling of pride of possession in placing either of the two in a book that reflects creditably on one's tastes and interests.—ROBERT E. GALBRAITH, Assistant Professor of English composition, the Pennsylvania State college, Chi Omega Eleusis.

If you could have the perfect chapter life for 1938, what would you choose—would you make any changes in what you already have, or are you satisfied? Just think what to you would be the perfect fraternity year—and if your vision means changes from the present reality, make those changes!—Σ K Triangle.

Are You Going to California?

If so please answer this questionnaire and mail it to Mrs Herbert Pillars, 938 Shattuck Ave. Berkeley, Calif.

1. If you plan to transfer to the University of California and if you were not to affiliate with your local group, would you be interested in a Panhellenic house?

2. Your name and address.

3. Your fraternity affiliation.

4. Your college year.

5. When do you plan to enter and how long to stay at U.C.?

6. What approximately would you wish to pay per month?

San Francisco Bay Panhellenic has appointed a committee to investigate the possibility of establishing a house on the University of California campus at Berkeley, which would be open to fraternity women transfers from other universities and colleges (whether graduates or undergraduates) who do not affiliate with their organizations on the California campus.

The purpose of such a house would be to offer attractive living quarters similar to those of fraternity houses, where social life and contacts would be like those enjoyed in a transfer's own chapter house.

Such a house would be especially desirable since there are no women's dormitories at the University of California.

Before plans can progress much farther the committee must have a fairly definite idea of a minimum number who would desire such residence. Please understand that your response does not obligate you in any way, nor is Panhellenic under obligation to you, as it is seeking information only at this time.

Alumnæ Group News

Chicago North side Thetas have a flourishing club, one year old. Besides regular monthly meetings, even right through the summer months, the club had four theater parties the past winter, seeing The women, Victoria Regina, Edna his wife, and Tovarich. They also had one party with husbands, some twenty of them, with colored motion pictures taken by the host while he and his Theta wife were on a cruise from San Francisco to New York via Panama.

Indiana Thetas report an attendance of 495 Thetas at their State luncheon honoring Theta Founders. Honor guests were fourteen alumnæ who had been Thetas for fifty years or more.

Long Island club has had monthly meetings this year—the program: a talk on crafts by Dean Hagelthorne of Adelphi; Christmas party with Alpha Kappa actives as guests; Founders'-day celebrated with New York alumnæ chapter; a campaign for refinancing Panhellenic house; a bridge for the benefit of Adelphi college; contract and knitting. And now they are busy at the work of a convention hostesses, several members being on the Executive committee headed by New York alumnæ chapter.

Ohio Valley club has had fifteen Thetas at each of five meetings since October. Theta current affairs and history were discussed. Some of them had two celebrations of Founders'-day—one as guests at Pittsburgh alumnæ chapter's celebration, the other their own black and gold tea.

Richmond club's Founders'-day luncheon had District president, Virginia Davis Boyce, as honor guest, of the 19 Thetas there. They all plan to be at convention.

Do You Know—that information about applying for an undergraduate loan is to be found on one of the last pages of this magazine?

that during the last six months of 1937, $3,600 was loaned to Theta juniors, seniors and one exceptional sophomore?

that since January 1, 1938, the Magazine Agency has forwarded $600 to the Loan and Fellowship Fund?

that fourteen other national women's fraternities have student loan funds?

that it is generally true that the recipients of these fraternity loans are girls who hold responsible positions in their chapters, and contribute in various extracurricular ways to enriching the life of their universities?

that among all fifteen fraternities who conduct a student loan fund, the award of an undergraduate loan is considered an award of merit?

ALPHA—DePauw

On March 12 Alpha held initiation for the following 17 pledges: Jo Anne Clippinger, Mary Lynn Jessop, Anne M. Holmes, Jane Rottger, Margaret Lou Colson, Geraldine Thiele, Suzanne Wilkinson, Elizabeth Horine, Joan Cravens, Genevieve Hartley, Jean Buchanan, Sarah Hogate, Kate Bonnie Idema, Nancy Raub, Betty Gridley, Evelyn Anne Stephens, and Julia Menninger.

Our Founder, Bettie Locke Hamilton, whose granddaughter Genevieve Hartley was initiated, was unable to be present for the actual ceremony, but was with us for the initiation banquet. Three generations of Theta were gathered under Alpha's roof that day since Genevieve's mother, Eulalie Hamilton Hartley, was our guest. Dr Lilian B. Brownfield, Alpha alumna, and professor of English literature at DePauw, presided graciously as toastmistress at the banquet.

Most of Alpha turned out for the annual state day in Indianapolis on Saturday, March 5. Both the luncheon and dance in the evening were held at the athletic club. On March 18 and 19 Sigma Delta Chi, men's national journalism fraternity, sponsored a series of stunts given in the little theater. Each fraternity desiring to enter was allowed 12 minutes on the stage for its performance. On Friday evening Alpha gave a skit called Rhythm 101—in which there was much singing and dancing. While we didn't come off with the prize, a wonderful radio, it was fun giving the skit and the rest of us enjoyed the rôles of spectators.

Anne Holmes was awarded the freshman scholarship badge and Nancy Neiswanger, sophomore, retained the scholarship badge she held her freshman year.

Betty Parker and Esther Jacobs have been initiated into Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalistic group, and on March 31 the two of them were instrumental in making possible a successful Matrix table to which a large number of Thetas, as active women on campus, were invited. Ruth Horine, junior, was installed on March 31 as president of Y.W.C.A.

On the calendar for the rest of the year an important place is assumed by the spring formal dance to be given on April 23, the week-end after spring vacation.

Theta won a double victory with the election of Betty Wangelin as Queen of the Butler Relays, held March 19; and the winning of the loyalty trophy for selling the most relay tickets. Betty is the fourth Theta queen elected in the past six years and it is the second consecutive time that Theta has received the loyalty trophy. Marjorie Zechiel, assisted by Louise Brandt and Betty Harger, was in charge of tickets.

Out of the twelve candidates from which the five most beautiful girls of Butler are to be chosen, five are Thetas. They are Sue Ammerman, Betty Wangelin, Marjorie Zechiel, Jane Owen, and Shirley Sarsfield.

Louise Brandt was initiated into Pi Epsilon Phi (home economics). Katherine Smith and Jane Pfeiffer were initiated into Theta Sigma Phi (journalism).

GAMMA DEUTERON—Ohio Wesleyan

This month Gamma deuteron made a special effort to improve the rooms. A new combination radio-victrola was purchased, which addition was followed by a marked increase in the use of the rooms. A rummage sale is being planned to net funds for further improvement.

In February at the annual Ohio Wesleyan Fun Fest, Theta took second place with a clever Charlie McCarthy skit. Ruth Wolfe, imitating the dummy, and Caroline Burnett, directing skilfully, received the chapter's thanks.

Three Thetas were chosen to go on the Singers club's annual tour, concerts to be given at Washington, New York, and smaller cities. These girls were Harriet Stauffer, Jane Clark, and Dorothy Benfield.

Following an unusually fine pledge show, Gamma deuteron initiated 23 pledges on February 22: Dorothy Benfield, Elizabeth Anne Birmingham, Sara Boyd, Helen Bren-

ETA—Michigan

This year Eta was fortunate in having Miss Green present at formal initiation. The ten initiates: Frances Bourke, Edith Lynch, Jean Forsythe, Maryanna Jamison, Cornelia Davidson, Jeanne Davidson, Ann Vicary, Jane Grove, Anna Carolyn Martin, Margaret Mulcahy. After a "Pledge week" during which they wrote and sang songs, gave poems and in general entertained the chapter at meals each day they were a happy group at the banquet Saturday evening.

We are very proud of Sybil Swartout, president of judiciary council for next year. Jean Rutherford is one of the two new junior members on the judiciary council of five women. Ann Vicary, whom we all regard as our prize little politician, is vice-president of the sophomore class. Ann and Hope Hartwig, retiring president of Michigan Women's league, were elected last week to the Student senate. This is a new institution on campus and is a model senate in which current world happenings will be discussed.

Harriet Sharkey, sophomore, is a new member of the Women's Athletic board, of which Mary Johnson is retiring president. Harriet will be assistant intramural manager of women's athletics. Harriet Pomeroy was elected secretary of Panhellenic association last week.

Harriet Pomeroy was publicity chairman of Junior Girls' play, Janet Fullenwider had a speaking part and Betty Shaffer, Betty Bonisteel, Jean Bertram, Mary Wickes and Harriet Pomeroy were in the choruses. After the first performance the sophomores of the house gave their traditional party for the seniors and juniors. They gave a short skit followed by refreshments.

Saturday April 2 promises to be an important day. The entire chapter is going into Detroit to attend a tea at Mrs R. W. Sinclair's home, given for Eta and Beta Pi chapters by the alumnae. That evening we are having an informal dance at the chapter house.

We are happy to have pledged Dorothy Dunlop of Maplewood, New Jersey, Betty Brundrette of Troy, Ohio, and Catherine Sprick of Quincy, Illinois.

May 6 and 7 are the dates of Michigras, a campus-wide affair with all the various organizations having booths similar to a county fair. Mary Johnson is women's general chairman and Harriet Sharkey and Janet Fullenwider are co-chairmen of programs and tickets, respectively. This is one of the few opportunities for everyone on campus to get together informally.

IOTA—Cornell

With no letter in the last issue, Iota has a lot of news this time. The high spot of the fraternity year was reached on February 20 when we initiated thirteen girls. They were Barbara Benson, Isabel Dempster, Anne Epley, Joanne Heath, Marjorie Huber, Mary Jessup, Jane Mann, Eileen McQuillin, Patricia Mooney, Marcia Nelson, Annette Sailor, Marjorie Salzman, and Caroline Weber.

The initiation banquet was held in Willard Straight hall, the college union, with Ruth McCurdy as toastmistress, Ruth McClelland Lee (Mrs W. F.) giving a wonderful talk on "Always a Theta," Janet Dempster welcoming the initiates to the chapter and Joanne Heath responding for the initiates.

March 13 was a lucky day for Iota. Mrs French, our District president, arrived for a three day visit. On that Tuesday the college and alumnae chapters gave a tea in her honor at the house.

For the third consecutive year a Theta will be president of W.S.G.A. This time it is Sally Steinman. Mary Dodds will be chairman of organized groups. They were both tapped for Mortar board on the same night.

Martha Sweet, Doris Tingley, and Betty Bishop have been chosen vice-presidents for the junior-freshman dormitories, and Phyllis André will be president of one of the freshman cottages.

One of the things we have enjoyed a great deal this year is the weekly tea given by the alumnae club for all the Thetas in Cornell and Ithaca at the house each Thursday. This is the first year they have tried it, and now we all look forward to it.

KAPPA—Kansas

Kappa held initiation services for the following 20 girls February 25: Betty Butcher, Betty Lou Dailey, Sallie Harris, Ruth Hudson, Alice Ann Jones, Nancy Kessler, Evelyn Meade, Peggy Morse, Ilse Nesbitt, Jean Stauffer, Margaret Stookey, Doris Simons, Louise Taylor, Juliette and Marjorie Trembly, Roberta Walker, Josephine Stevens, Genola Englehart, Jane Montgomery, and Jean Robertson.

Meredith Dyer was initiated into Quill club and Marjorie Trembly is a member of the Camera club. Ruth Hudson was chosen to become a member of the Mathematics club. Rosamond Barr and Sue Fowler were initiated into Pi Lambda Theta (education). Rosamond Barr was also initiated into the Dramatic club.

We are happiest about the number of Thetas who have been elected to high campus offices. Gevene Landrith is the new president of W.S.G.A. and Joyce Vetter is senior vice-president of the council of the same organization. Ruth Olive Brown was elected vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. and Alice Neal a member of the new Y.W.C.A. cabinet. Jane Flood is now Sunday editor of the University Daily Kansan.

Betty Butcher was a member of the cast of Spring dance, which was presented five consecutive nights. She was playing the part of Miriamne in Winterset, which in addition to the five nights that it played at the university is making a tour of the state and will be presented in about six different towns. Rosamond Barr, Dorothy Fritz and Patty Bishop have been chosen for the cast of Cavalcade which will be presented one night only. Dorothy Fritz will play the leading part.

In intramurals Kappa Alpha Theta now ranks third in the number of points earned this season. Several of the girls have received letters and are to be initiated into W.A.A. These girls are Jane Blaney, Patty Bishop, Ruth Mary Nelson, Ruth Olive Brown, Jane Flood, Judy Eidson, and Jane Montgomery. Ruth Olive Brown was chosen a member of the varsity basketball squad.

The chapter held its first party of the year February 12 at the Memorial Union building. The ballroom was decorated so that it looked like a penthouse on the top of a skyscraper in a large city, and the Penthouse Party was lots of fun for everybody.

Thetas to graduate this spring are Jeanette Bowen, Marjorie Wahl, Rosamond Barr, Mary Ellen DeMotte, Patty Bishop, Sue Fowler, and Jane Flood. Jane and Mary Ellen are members of the senior class committee of the college. Mary Ellen is to write the class history, and Jane will write the class prophecy.

At the W.S.G.A. carnival which was given in order to raise money for a scholarship fund, the Thetas had in their booth a baby show. A number of the girls were dressed as babies, either supposedly tiny babies or little girls and boys about three or four years old. The booth was clever and we had a lot of fun doing it.

LAMBDA—Vermont

Rushing season was brought to a grand closing with the final dinner on February 15. We had a German dinner in the cellar of Mrs French's house which was decorated with Austrian and German posters. Our tables were covered with red checked cloths, we drank root-beer out of steins, and our waitresses wore Tyrolean costumes. It was very old-worldish.

Two days later, on February 18, while it was still very dark, we left our warm beds to pledge eleven girls. They were: Mildred Gutmorsen, East Walpole, Massachusetts, and Charlotte Hall, Ridgewood, New Jersey, both sophomores; Christine Carruthers, Fort Ethan Allen; Beryl Douglas, Burlington; Margaret Esherick, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Mary Jane Hammond, Brighton, Massachusetts; Laura Hawley, New Rochelle, New York; Louise Mann, Burlington; Marian Rice, Mendon; Kathleen LeBaron, Hinesburg; and Nancy Jones, Belmont, Massachusetts.

The next Sunday we took our pledges to morning services at St. Paul's church. That same afternoon, which marked the end of Kake Walk week-end, we had open house for alumnæ and parents who had come up for Kake Walk. It was very informal, a fine way to slope off the week-end, and a new idea popularly supported by all the houses on the Hill.

March 3 the pledges gave a tea for us upper classmen and for representatives of other fraternities. It was delightful—now we know where to find the members for our entertainment committees.

Two days later we gave a pledge dance. In spite of the fact that some of us had been up at the national ski meet at Mt. Mansfield and had been caught in a sleet storm on our way back, enthusiasm was contagious, and everyone had a splendid time. Edith Rice, our decorator in chief, cleverly turned our rooms into a realm of phantasy with the seven dwarf motif.

March 13 the seniors gave a supper and game party. We always have much fun at these parties, and it makes us much more unified.

Saturday, March 19 was our initiation and banquet day. Added to the girls already named, Avis Cobb, previously pledged, was initiated. Unfortunately, Nancy Jones, because of illness, was unable to be initiated.

The banquet was great fun. Our mistress of ceremonies, Francie Rowe, now a medical student, gave the informal talks following dinner a grand start. Our doctor diagnosed the Theta situation and with an eye on our very fine initiates declared the prognosis favorable and the crisis of Theta safely over. That's what we all think after the first meeting with initiates already started as active members.

New addresses: Barbara Wears, 79 Washington st. East Orange, N.J.

MU—Allegheny

Much of our time the last few weeks has been spent in planning our new library. The sophomores are each donating a book, while the seniors are giving the book-case. One of the seniors donated Kappa Alpha Theta book-plates. The idea for making additions to our library is to have each senior give a book when she graduates.

Our District president was here for her annual visit a few weeks ago. The sophomores were in charge of a dinner given for her in the rooms.

Ruth Wetherbee was elected vice-president of next year's junior class. Ruth also won the girls' bowling tournament. The last four girls to place were Thetas. We also won the basketball championship which, with the points for the bowling match, gives us the lead in scoring for the intra-mural sports.

Dorothy Dotterer was initiated into Phi Beta Phi (biology). Jane Bernhard and Martha Lukehart were initiated into Kappa Delta Epsilon (education).

The week-end of May 14 is to be a busy one for us. On Friday, May 13, we are giving our spring formal dinner-dance with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Saturday and Sunday are the dates for our annual mothers' week-end.

OMICRON—Southern California

Rush season closed with the pledging of five nuggets: Millicent Day (sister of Shirley, Beta Xi) Barbara Antrim, Peggy Heilmann, Mary Howlett, and Jean McKenna. We proudly presented them to the campus on March 8, with Dorothy McCune and our house mother, Mrs Feerrar, at the head of the receiving line. On March 28 we increased our number by one with the pledging of Betty Blair.

Imagine our chagrin when, after wading to eight o'clocks on the morning of March 3, we found there were no classes being held. Replacing stern-looking professors were various fraternity members aquaplaning from the rear bumpers of automobiles along the flooded avenues. We returned to our houses to enjoy a day of bridge and other indoor recreation. Such flooded conditions resulted from the heavy rainfall that the university declared the next day a holiday.

Barbara and Gloria Young, Laurella Lancaster, Janis Nordling, Janet Chase, and Marjory Twomey participated in round table discussions at the city Panhellenic meeting held in the Town and Gown foyer March 2. Discussions on rushing, finance, and scholarship were concluded at noon, and the session was closed with a luncheon.

The ranks of our active chapter were increased on March 3 with the initiation of Peggy Wells, Harriet Burd, Virginia Crabtree, Dorothy Ditto, Patricia Francis, Nancy Newberry, Margaret Ann Price, Travis Wilkinson, and Martha Tanner. A banquet at Garden of Allah followed the ceremony, at which time Letitia Rees spoke for the seniors; Cecile Hallingby for the juniors; Janis Nordling for the sophomores; and Peggy Price for the new initiates.

We proudly heard the name of Betty Peir read in assembly as a member of Amazons, service organization. Harriet Burd and Marjory Twomey were pledged to Zeta Phi Eta (speech). Dorothy McCune was among the members of the U.S.C. A Cappella choir who made a tour to San Francisco to sing.

June 4 will be a gala but sad day when Dorothy McCune, Jane Rosenberger, Letitia Rees, Betty Rogers, and Virginia Rose graduate. We will honor them at the traditional senior breakfast on that morning.

Although our chief concern should be with studies, we are constantly thinking of Spring Lake and convention. La Verne Rutherford as official delegate will be accompanied by Dorothy McCune, Cecile Hallingby, Betty Peir, Lucille Martin, Laurella Lancaster, Virginia Crabtree, and Harriet Burd.

We are very grateful to our alumnae for gifts which include a table lamp for the living room, from the younger alumnae, fifty dollars from the Pasadena alumnae; and a lovely set of after-dinner coffee cups from Cecile Boyd Keeney.

RHO—Nebraska

March 12 was an important day for Rho. The day began with formal initiation at the chapter house for the entire pledge class of seventeen girls. The new initiates in order of initiation are: Mary Jane Bennett, Lucille Anderson, Mary McLaughlin, Mary Marnell, Carolyn Harrison, Mary Margaret Morris, Marie Christensen, Gwenith Orr, Jessica Mutz, Louise Mackey, Priscilla Chain, Mildred Wekesser, Edith Knight, Virginia R. Smith, Dorothy Cline, Mary Helen Hustead, and Marie Anderson.

The initiation banquet was given the same evening at the University club. There were 175 Thetas present and of that number about 60 were from outstate.

We were fortunate in having as an honored guest Mrs Moore, District V's president. She spoke to us on the subject, "Exploring District V." It was interesting to learn the unique characteristics of which each of these chapters could be proud. Martha Cline Huffman, convention manager and former Grand president, acted as toastmistress and certainly did her part in making this affair a success.

An interesting part of the banquet was the announcement of the scholarship awards by Marjorie Bell Campbell. Awards were made from a fund obtained from fines of fifty cents for each delinquent hour. The senior girl having the highest average for the number of semesters she attended Nebraska was given $5.00. Patricia Byers was presented with this. Jane Eldridge received a $5.00 award for having the highest average in the senior class for this year. The same sum was given the town and house junior and sophomore having the highest average. Patricia Lahr and Mary Vogel were awarded the junior prize and Barbara Dewese and Jean Reed received the sophomore award. Mary Jane Bennett was given her Theta badge for having the highest pledge average. Lucille Anderson, who had kept the best pledge book, was awarded $2.50.

Jessica Mutz and Priscilla Chain were chosen as the best town and house pledge respectively.

SIGMA—Toronto

To begin the year properly, at one of our earliest meetings, we read a letter from Mrs French, who, having attended a meeting of Sigma on December 6, had many helpful suggestions as to correct parliamentary procedure. The outcome?—our meetings (we hope) are now admirably well-conducted and amazingly peaceful affairs!

Social events made the winter a short one, beginning with the Founders'-day banquet on January 27 at the Granite club. Soon after, the Panhellenic banquet and dance was held in Simpson's Arcadian court. At the latter, Sigma was proud to receive the scholarship cup.

On February 18, we pledged Beth Stewart. The occasion was duly celebrated at the formal dance which took place at the supper dance of the Royal York hotel, on February 22.

Sigma's taste for interior decorating was manifested on March 5, when several members made up tables for the Panhellenic bridge held in aid of the University settlement.

Two days later Jean Wallace and Beth Stewart were initiated, after which we had a supper at Murray's, with a subsequent cinema and bridge game.

EDITH LEHTO

30 March 1938

Married: Anna Ellen Stockdale to Robert H. Hillery, Mar. 26.

TAU—Northwestern

During second semester rushing Tau pledged Marjorie Alderdice, Peggy Ketcham (formerly a pledge of Alpha) and Laura Wills.

Tau is also proud to announce that since March 5, 17 new members are wearing Theta badges. They are Madge Clark, Harriet Emmert, Barbara Freeman, Mary Lou Huggett, Sue Ingalls, Lois Keller, Helen Kivits, Virginia Lee, Betty McDannell, Helen Osler, Helen Mae Pearson, Katherine Parmentier, Frances Spratlin, Patricia Stevens, Peggy Yundt, Virginia Raehl, and Janet Wagner. The initiation was followed by a banquet held at the Georgian hotel. One of the highlights of the evening was an interesting speech given by Mrs Grasett. Frances Griggs was toastmistress, and Myra Jane Hutton Sunderland represented the alumnæ. Representatives from each class gave clever little poems involving the members of the chapter.

Helen Kivits was awarded the scholarship badge for attaining an A average. Betty McDannell was awarded the activities badge and Madge Clark, president of Willard hall, freshman girls' dormitory, received honorable mention.

Helen Osler, new initiate, was recently pledged to Phi Beta (music and speech). Helen Mae Pearson was made a member of the varsity swimming team. Dorothy Wheeler was one of six Northwestern girls chosen by popular male vote to be a Syllabus beauty queen.

This month the whole chapter spent an enjoyable evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house where we were invited for dinner. We also had exchange dinners with Gamma Phi Beta and Phi Gamma Delta.

BARBARA TRUMP

UPSILON—Minnesota

Upsilon is proud to announce the initiation on February 5 of eleven members: Grace Tucker, Gretchen Heynacher, Donna Knapp, Barbara Speier (daughter of Catherine Hixon Speier) Dorothy Strudwick, Margaret Blegen, Barbara Rounds, Marion Dornfeld, Susan O'Brien, and Ruth Kircher. Phoebe Pearce of Red Wing is a new pledge.

Two of our most beloved seniors, Yvonne Stoddard, outgoing president, and Catherine Webster, graduated on March 17. Kathleen Watson was recognized in a long article by one of the city newspapers as a prominent senior in activities and services.

The chapter entertained the Dean of women, Anne Dudley Blitz, at a dinner. Alumnæ Ellen Hulbert Fredin and Agnes Quamme Higgins and their husbands were also present. Mr Higgins is an instructor in economics. Everybody joined in old-fashioned parlor games after dinner. At present we are making plans for an exchange dinner with the Kappa Kappa Gamma chapter and also for Founders'-day banquet sometime early in April.

At the annual spring Panhellenic dinner March 7, Dean Blitz told us that the majority of Deans of women from the leading colleges of the country do not believe in restricting chapter membership to help smaller chapters on the campus. Committees are being named for the Panhellenic spring formal to be given late in April.

We are greatly indebted to our mothers' club and the alumnæ chapter for their generous gifts. The mothers donated a set of silver candlesticks and an easy chair for the living room. The alumnæ bought us initiation robes.

We are sorry to be losing Florence Swanson, who has been our financial advisor on the house board for several years. She has announced her engagement to Philip Laurence and her home will be in Coral Gables, Florida.

PHI—Stanford

At the Founders'-day luncheon Lucy Day Bell, pledge, was awarded the freshman scholarship ring for highest average during fall quarter. This year, as is their usual custom, Omega defeated us with an exceptionally well-presented skit.

February 24 we gave a fashion show in conjunction with the California chapter at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. The ticket sale was eminently successful and a record-breaking crowd gathered to watch members from both chapters model clothes from Nellie Gaffney. Models from Phi included Mignon Hamlin, Willma Richardson, Sally Weston, Jean Gibson, Martha Jane Knecht, Janet Nelson, Mary Elizabeth LaRue, Margaret Eastman, and one pledge, Kathleen Benet.

Women's conference sponsored a fashion show on the campus March 1. Willma Richardson served as an efficient chairman, aided by Jane Eaton. Models from Theta were Mignon Hamlin, Kathleen Thompson, Mary Elizabeth LaRue, and Ruth Ide from the pledges.

Our social calendar has been full. March 2 we had a mothers' and fathers' dinner, and on March 9 our quarterly faculty dinner.

We are happy to announce the pledging on March 30 of Virginia Valentine, San Francisco, and the affiliation of Jeanette Hunt, Beta Xi.

We are pleased to have with us again this quarter Roberta Jean Rankin, Kathleen Thompson and Marjorie Meyer.

PSI—Wisconsin

Selected for the Military Ball court of honor is Jacquelyn Peterson, Wauwatosa, last year's Home-coming Queen.

March 20 was the date of formal initiation for Jean Ogden, Jeanne Mueller, Mary Ellen Grady, Carol Ann Reis (sister of Fritz) Betty Rebhan, Eunice Kenney, Margaret Meyer, Mary Margaret Adams (sister of Betty Jean) Betty Symonds, Betty Joslyn, Madeleine Maurey, Eleanor Freeman, Barbara Judd, Genevieve Gillette and Barbara Preston.

The influence of distraction and attention was the title of Violet Bagley's thesis, which was so outstanding that it has been accepted by the American Journal of Psychology and will soon be published. "Vi," last semester's rushing chairman, is a graduating senior, with psychology as her major.

Psi enjoyed having Miss Green, executive secretary and editor, as a guest at the house from March 17-19. We were equally delighted to have her bring with her, though only for a few hours' visit, Mrs Banta, past grand president, and her daughter Peggy, Alpha Psi. Another welcome visitor to our chapter was Mrs Bremner, District president, on Feb. 14.

Cody Noble, transfer from Delta chapter at Illinois, played the lead in the university production of The circle, March 14-19. Aside from her theatre activities, Cody has been active in radio work this year, giving a weekly broadcast over WHA, the university broadcasting station.

OMEGA—California

We are always proud of Thetas who are invited to join honor societies, and at the head of Omega's list this semester stands Patricia Wachob who, in one month, was invited to join Prytanean, Mortar board, and Torch and Shield. Other girls who have brought honor to Omega are Janet May, by her election to Torch and Shield; Ann Berryhill, Jane Cox, and Shirley Phelps, who were elected to Ace of Clubs.

On February 24 Omega joined Phi in presenting the fashion show at the Mark Hopkins hotel in San Francisco. The affair was a great success, and the high point of the afternoon was the bridal party, with Betty Lou Yelton of Omega as the bride and Jane Parrish and Elizabeth Pinger acting as two of her four bridesmaids. On February 17 the sophomores entertained the members of the house association, at their annual meeting, with a clever skit based on the joys of a possible new house. Plans for a new chapter house for Omega were discussed and the girls rallied enthusiastically around the alumnae with an offer to help in any way possible.

Our joy of joys at the present moment is the wonderful new combination radio and phonograph with which the mothers' club presented us. The fact that it will play ten records without stopping is no small part of our delight in it. This year we plan to give our house formal on April 9, and Suzanne Bocqueraz has graciously offered her home for it. We are all looking forward to the dance.

ALPHA GAMMA—Ohio State

Our plans for an informal dance at the Columbus Riding club went awry when the club burned down. However, on the night of February 25, we did have our dance at the Wyandott Country club.

Theta came through to the finals in the sorority sing which took place at the Winter Carnival on March 11. Alpha Xi Delta took the honors. On the same night at the Neil house downtown was the Panhellenic prom, which was well attended by members of Alpha Gamma.

Ohio State university will be the scene of the Big Ten track meet in May. The chapter voted unanimously to cooperate with officials in selling tickets for this event.

The W.S.G.A. elections resulted in a landslide for Theta. Four girls were put up from this chapter and all four received offices. Jean Waid was appointed secretary. The other girls elected were Alyce Chambers, Betty Doron, and Janice Ridenour.

Arrangements are being made for a carnival to be given this spring in order to obtain funds for our new house, the plans of which occupy an honored place over our mantel.

We are looking forward to entertaining Gamma deuteran at dinner some time during this spring quarter.

ALPHA DELTA—Goucher

Four of our five seniors, Anne Hutchins, Marjorie Groothius, Margaret Cort, and Mildred Arnold, were elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Sally Waters, newly elected president of Alpha Delta, has been made co-chairman of May day festivities. May day has become one of Goucher's most celebrated events. It takes place at our new campus at Towson, Maryland, where natural scenic beauty serves as an appropriate background. The May court, composed of seniors, includes Theta's brunette beauty, Judith Bushey. Besides the crowning of the May Queen and the presentation of a Greek play, there will be a horse show. Anne Donald will show one of the horses.

Anne Hutchins' independent research project on the opera's place in English literature has won much acclaim.

Final plans for the Theta annual dance are complete. It will take place in the blue room of the Belvedere hotel April 30.

Annual houseparty has been scheduled for the second week in June. As usual, it will be on the Eastern Shore, and swimming, sunbathing, horseback riding and golf will make an entertaining holiday.

In May Baltimore alumnae will entertain Alpha Delta at a picnic. These outings are a delightful method of increasing the friendship between the two groups.

Many of the chapter will attend convention at Spring Lake, New Jersey. We are lucky that the great event is so close by.

ALPHA ETA—Vanderbilt

Alpha Eta's chapter house got its hands and face scrubbed and put its best foot forward to greet Theta's national treasurer, Mrs Athearn, in February. We hope she liked us as well as we liked her. Mrs Athearn especially urged us to go to convention in June and promised a grand time. Our convention delegate will be Virginia Sturdivant but we hope many more of us will be there.

While she was here, Mrs Athearn attended the annual Washington Ball given by the student union, at which she saw two Thetas win prizes for their costumes. Henrietta Hickman won first and Ann Jackson, second place.

Basketball season was not so successful as we hoped. Gamma Phi Beta beat us in our very first game, but they won the tournament so we can still think we were next best. But to help make up for this disappointment, we added another cup to our collection not long afterwards by winning the Song Night contest. Thanks are due to Mary Louise Bearden and Ann Jackson, in charge of practices.

Thetas cheered lustily at the junior prom this year, when the prom Queen and prom favorites were announced. As a matter of fact, we feel rather stuck up about the whole matter. We boast not only of having the Queen, Jean McEwen, among our number, but of Polly Ann Billington, Sara Cecil, and Whitola Driskill, who were chosen favorites.

Six pledges were initiated on April 3: Jean Gibson, Jean Smith, Elaine Johnson, Damaris Witherspoon, Josephine Elliot, and Sara Cecil.

In the annual election of the Sweetheart of the university, Lois Sager was elected as one of the five final candidates. Run-off votes will not be counted until Round-Up, April 8.

Another Theta, Kathryn Owens, has been elected associate editor of the Daily Texan, university newspaper. Lois Crow is a nominee for secretary of the student body.

ALPHA IOTA—Washington (St. Louis)

After singing practices at least once a day for three months, we were amply repaid for our efforts; for on February 26, we won the intersorority sing for the third time within the five years it has been held at Washington.

The evening of February 28, the Mothers' club gave a tea in honor of the pledges' parents. On this occasion it is the custom for scholarship checks to be awarded to the girl in each class who raises her grades the most. This year the awards were given to Charlotte Fairbank, senior; Jean Dicks, junior; and Marjorie Penny, sophomore. Jane Chivvis, a senior, won the award for highest grades in the chapter. Dolly Schuyler was given a pin for highest grades in the pledge class, her grades being the same as those of Jane Chivvis.

Mrs Grimm, our District president, came down for the initiation on February 19 of: Barbara Bain, Evelyn Bloodworth, Virginia Ann Cook, Marjorie Chapman, Marion Thoms, Alice Lloyd, Jane Henderson, Nell Gee, Mary Wilson, Mary Jane Siegle, Edwine Schmid and Helen Schmid, Dolly Schuyler, Agnes Jane Gilliam, Martha Gildehaus, Barbara Moore, and Elinor Meier.

ALPHA KAPPA—Adelphi

The most exciting and stimulating event that has happened to Alpha Kappa since the visit of Grand council a few months ago was the arrival of Virginia Davis Boyce, our District president, on Tuesday, March 29. With her came Eleanor Dilworth, assistant manager of convention. Both were filled to the brim with enthusiastic ideas for Alpha Kappa and, of course, for convention, to which we are all looking forward with great expectations. The chapter entertained Mrs Boyce at a tea to which representatives of the other fraternities were invited. After the tea we all attended an alumnae supper meeting at Mrs McKee's. Mrs Boyce and Miss Dilworth left Thursday after a very pleasant visit.

We were very happy to learn that Jean Wallauer Duncan, Beta Rho, has been appointed co-organizer of Alpha Kappa by Grand council.

A number of Thetas have offices and honor positions on campus. Lelia Brady has been elected president of W.S.G.A. and has also been elected to Lantern (scholarship and leadership).

Aida King was elected to Round Table (English). Betty Rae Alger and Betty Hammond were chose for May court, which is comprised of the most beautiful girls in the college. Betty Hammond is also vice-president of the freshman class. Muriel Pedersen and Betty Rae Alger have been chosen as members of Daisy Chain by the senior class, and Muriel will also be an executive on the student government board next year.

Janet Weeks was unexpectedly rushed into Betty Rae Alger's part in our varsity show, Pride and Prejudice, when Betty Rae was taken sick. After only two days' preparation Janet turned in a laudable performance.

ALPHA LAMBDA—Washington

Marion Bloomquist again during winter quarter achieved a straight A record, as did Barbara Curran. Both girls had straight A reports for fall quarter also. At the annual Associated women students scholarship banquet in February, Barbara was awarded the sophomore plaque for high scholarship. She has almost a straight A record, her grade average being 3.9. She was also elected Associated women students treasurer, a major campus office, for the ensuing year. There will be two Thetas, besides Barbara, on the council next year: Ingrid Flakstad, who will be in charge of season concert publicity, and Kay Puryear, who is chairman of the patron and patroness committee. These council members, and Kate Robbins and Paula Barton, will attend the Associated women students houseparty at Beaver Lake, April 2 and 3.

Polly Anne Schnoor, Janey Mathews, and Bette Adams will be initiated during the week of April 11.

We are looking forward to a visit from Mrs Grasett on April 4.

We are sorry to lose one of our sophomores, Shirley Saye, who will not be in school spring quarter due to illness. Jane Griffiths, junior, leaves April 1 for a four months' trip in Europe. We are wishing her a grand time.

ALPHA MU—Missouri

February contained many red-letter days for Alpha Mu. Early in the month we were favored by a visit from Mrs Grasett, whose helpful advice and lovely personality charmed us all. Then for Founders'-day banquet, February 19, we were indeed fortunate in having Mrs Moore, our District president, with us.

The day after Founders'-day we initiated the following twelve girls: Gertrude Guinn, Harriett Jones, Sue Davis, Jane Edgerly, Marjorie Ellis, Marie Hansen, Mary Hodson, Nancy Holden, Maxine Lehnen, Jane Logan, Louise Moser, and Orilla Ann Trippe.

The Alumnae association meeting in February started definite plans for building, so we are being joyful in anticipation of a new house by fall.

We added a new trophy to our collection when through the work of Jane James, Laura Louise Dille, and Gertrude Guinn, Theta won the Savitar cup, for a skit presented in the Savitar show.

Marjorie Ellis has been chosen as a member of freshman commission. Katherine Nies is a candidate for military Queen; Sue Davis, for Farmer's Fair Queen; Jean Gernsey for M Men's Queen; and Mary Katherine Maurer for private secretary of the school of business and public administration.

The chapter entertained the mothers of the girls on Mothers' week-end, March 12. Entertainment included a buffet supper, to which town alumnae were invited, and a plantation breakfast.

Plans are under way for the inter-sorority sing in April. Laura Louise Dille and Jane James are in charge.

The spring formal is to be May 20. We are looking forward to a grand time and hope that many alumnae will come back for it.

ALPHA NU—Montana

Oh's and Ah's were heard for some time when we returned to our house after spring vacation and saw the beautiful new wall-paper downstairs and the new bedroom with modern fixtures.

In February we entertained the Mothers' club at a luncheon at the chapter house. Marian Morse entertained with piano selections and Jeanne Ruenauver with her impersonation of Tizzie Lish.

Alpha Nu's basketball team took third place in the tournament. After the tournament Delta Gamma entertained our basketball team at dinner.

Three hundred girls from Stephens college stopped in Missoula for several hours on their annual tour. After a tour around the campus they went to the various men's and women's fraternities for buffet supper. Twenty girls were entertained by Alpha Nu. While our visitors were here we were serenaded by Sigma Chi.

Baseball season is here and Theta girls are determined to make a showing, so practicing is in full sway.

Initiation will be held this quarter for Drea O'Connell, Lois Bauer, Maxine Roehl (sister of Judith) and Pauline Steele.

We are looking forward to our visit from Mrs Grasett, Grand president.

Lois Blewett graduated from home economics at the end of winter quarter, and has gone to New York where she will marry Robert Lawson.

Caryl Jones was elected vice-president of the Associated women students March 26.

We are making elaborate plans for entertaining senior high school girls from all over the state when they come to Missoula for interscholastic trackmeet in May.

We are sorry to lose Mary Willians who did not return this quarter.

ALPHA XI—Oregon

Elizabeth Stetson heads the Associated women students, and Patsy Taylor is president of Panhellenic.

Laurie Sawyer's scholarship record gives us a chance to be duly proud; for she was one of nineteen students in the university who made a perfect A average winter term. Elizabeth Ann DeBusk, Jeanne Fleming, Elizabeth Stetson, and Lois Onthank, all from Eugene, just missed a perfect record by mere tenths of a point. These superior grades help to balance those made by the majority of the house—which reminds me to change the subject immediately.

Perhaps we should mention that Oregon's basketball team won the northwest championship this year, only to be downed by Stanford in the coast conference tilt. There was a movement of Thetas en masse to each home game played.

With spring term comes the opportunity for actual participation in athletics. The chapter's baseball team, under the leadership of Barbara Espy, is off to a rousingly good start. With the addition of a tennis team that is "extra super," we hope to make an enviable record in intramural sports.

At last we can entertain without fear of injuring our guests by unexpected jabs from broken davenport springs, for the mothers' club has had the living room davenports recovered and repaired for us. A worthy enterprise, to say the least, and one for which we are most thankful.

Sunday, March 27, Lanny Ross, noted singer and radio star, appeared before the students in a concert, and on May 9, Miss Helen Jepson, renowned Metropolitan singer, comes to the campus. For the first time in its history, the university is presenting a musicale: Grieg's Peer Gynt suite. Both students and faculty members will have parts in this spectacular production to be given April 26.

Adelaide Carter, Oklahoma City, has been replugged from Beta Beta, Randolph-Macon.

We are proud to announce that Eleanor Burton has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Ruby Jane Douglass and Marian Beck are members of the Mortar board honor class. Dorothy Mae Bennett and Bette Fae Kearns have been initiated into El Modjii.

Jean Vance was chosen for the lead in the water pageant. She was recently initiated into Ducks club. Babs Lawton appeared in one of the leading rôles in High Tor, University Playhouse production.

Our social calendar has included many and varied events. Our spring dansant was March 19. Vine-covered trellises decorated the University club ballroom, where the party was given. Members and pledges entertained their dates at a buffet supper April 10. Brothers and sons of Thetas were our guests at dinner March 23. Faculty members and their wives were entertained March 24 with an after dinner coffee.

The Theta trio, composed of Ruby Jane Douglass, Babs Lawton and Kathryn Ford, was so enthusiastically received when they sang at our dansants that the girls have appeared since on several campus concerts.

Photographers attending the annual photography short course at the university were entertained in our house April 7.

As this letter is written, Ruth Ann McSpadden is in the finals of the Oklahoma intercollegiate tennis tournament.

Mrs Fisher, District president was our guest for several days in March.

ALPHA PI—North Dakota

Eleanor Thompson, former editor and chief honor-taker this month, has received a scholarship recently from Lexington school for the deaf in New York. In connection with this, she will attend Columbia university where she will work on her Master's degree. She has been appointed in charge of the Women's professional sorority dinner. Ever-ambitious Eleanor has charge of a puppet show conducted by Zeta Phi Eta, which we think is second only to Tony Sarg's. She also has the lead in the play, Warrior's husband, to be presented some time in May.

Mrs John Charles Thomas (Dorothy May Kaehler, Omega) delighted us and inflated our ego by sending us a thank-you telegram. We certainly enjoyed the concert given by her husband, John Charles Thomas, in Grand Forks a few weeks ago. We hope that she will visit us some time.

Five new initiates, Lenore Baukol, Ann Ertresvaag, Deloris Fruh, Jane Gilbertson, and Martha Lou Johnson, are flying Theta kites. Alpha Pi gave a traditional dinner in their honor. The weird sounds which came from the dining room when the initiates sang their original compositions, would have scared the natives.

We have combined with Kappa Sigma for Follies. The girls have been tuning up their voice boxes, as well as limbering their limbs for tap and waltz routines. Who knows, we may discover hidden talents.

Marian Lund and Eleanor Vold went south to escape winter weather. Marian visited in California, and Eleanor in Florida. Other travelers are Alice Forkner, Eleanor Eide, and Verone Wagness, who are going with the Madrigal club on the annual singing tour through North Dakota, Canada, and neighboring states. The rest of us are keeping Grand Forks alive.

Alpha Pi is not lacking scholarship honors. The three straight "A" students are, Elizabeth Taylor, Ellen Bek, and Doris Wilk. Hazel Durfee was elected to Pi Lambda Theta; Doris Wilk to Beta Gamma Sigma; Martha Lou Johnson to Phi Chi Theta; and Margaret Duffy to Kappa Beta Pi.

Adelaide Hanson, new chapter president, is the president of Arts and Crafts club.

Every year the home economics department of the university sponsors an open house in connection with Engineers' day. We are proud to have Kathryn Kalbfleisch as general chairman.

DELORIS FRUH

Married: Margaret Tellner to David N. Rudrud, Feb. 18. 6463 Van Nuys blvd. Van Nuys, Calif.

Born: To Mr and Mrs Paul Klev (Vera Hudson) a daughter, Feb. 19.

New addresses: Gladys O'Keefe Kolars (Mrs Paul M.) 1786 Juliet, St. Paul, Minn.—Margaret Meridith Patterson (Mrs Elwood) 1108 E. Marquette rd. Chicago, Ill.

ALPHA RHO—South Dakota

Initiation services took place February 27 for eleven girls: Marya Deer (sister of Constance) Ruth Rempfer (sister of Margaret) Harriet Bakewell, Janice Brookman, Marian Farmer, Helen Gibbs, Phyllis Hendricksen, Ruth Hunter, Anita LaGrave, Marion Melham, and Marjorie Norton. Virginia Faragher, Sioux Falls, was pledged on February 2.

This past month we have won the basketball and the rifle trophies for the second consecutive year. Members of the rifle team were: Marion Melham, Helen Gibbs, Helen Anderson, and Jane Robertson. The winning of these cups means Alpha Rho has earned all the important trophies on the campus, having won the Dakota Day cup for the most beautiful Home-coming float last fall.

Our scholarship was the highest on the campus this past semester, and this gives us high hopes of winning the scholarship trophy for the year. Four out of six girls recently pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman scholarship) were Thetas: Phyllis Hendricksen, Ruth Rempfer, Marya Deer, and Helen Gibbs.

In Up pops the Devil, all-university production, presented on March 10, Eleanore Morrison played the lead of an ambitious young wife. Maurine Sebring was property manager for the play with Harriet Bakewell as her assistant. Helen Gibbs assisted the costume crew and Ruth Hunter was on the publicity staff.

Founders'-day on January 27 found many alumnae back. Our annual winter formal was at the chapter house on February 19. Favors for the dance were crested leather cigarette cases.

Marion Melham was elected secretary of Apprentice Players, dramatic organization. The W.A.A. initiated Marya Deer, Janice Brookman, Ruth Rempfer, Helen Gibbs, and Ruth Hunter.

Sarah Ann Dawson, Beta Kappa, was a welcome week-end guest at the house, March 11.

A colorful and gay Valentine dinner was given at the house on Valentine day, with about twenty-five men as guests. The table was decorated with Valentine hearts and nut-cups and tall red candles.

Pledges entertained the chapter at a formal banquet on February 17. The five course dinner served in the chapter dinner room carried out the fraternity colors. During the course of the dinner Harriet Bakewell sang a solo, Helen Gibbs presented a reading, and various pledges gave short talks on fraternity life and ideals.

Strollers Vodvil, annual campus musical comedy show made up of individual acts given by men's and women's fraternities, was given March 26. We presented an act with Phi Delta Theta as our co-partners. The act was entitled Café L'Apache, and, as the name suggests, the setting was in a French café. The proper, colorful atmosphere was provided by a bar and a bar-tender, tables with checked table cloths on them, and sputtering candles set in bottles. Specialty numbers included a real French apache dance, a torch singer, a fast-stepping tap dance, and an outspoken communist.

In journalistic activities Theta is represented by Betty Frei, Carroll Willson, Shirley Reynolds, Marjorie Norton, and Ruth Hunter. Marjorie was recently elected secretary-treasurer of Alpha Chi Alpha (journalism).

RUTH HUNTER

28 March 1938

New addresses: Margaret Pohlman, 1133 Almeria av. Coral Gables, Fla.—Margaret Schlosser Buck (Mrs W. H.) No. 1 Chauncy, Suite 16, Cambridge, Mass.—Dorothy Sweeney Morton (Mrs J. H.) 9 Dana st. Cambridge, Mass.

ALPHA SIGMA—Washington State

Washington State Thetas wore their kites proudly March 10 because on that day their blonde junior, Bernadine Turner, nominated by special petition from the girls' dormitories, won the Associated women students' presidency from two other candidates. On the annual Mothers' week-end in May she will receive the presiding gavel from retiring president Barbara Fairchild, who is also a Theta!

Winning of the A.W.S. election served to lighten the disappointment we felt when for the first time in nine consecutive semesters Kappa Alpha Theta's name did not head the campus scholarship roll. Kappa Kappa Gamma won the cup by six tenths of a point with an average of 86.42. Ours was 86.36.

Jane Wilson lost the presidency of the Y.W.C.A., but received a place on next year's cabinet.

Washington State Thetas continue to hold their own in the dramatic field, due to the abilities of Betty Secrest, June Burgunder, and Catherine Prior. Jane played the lead in the last production of the speech department, Accent on youth, while Catherine will perform in the next one, Children of the moon.

Six Theta sisters and daughters were initiated at the spring ceremony March 19. At that time, Jane Burgunder (daughter of Ruth de Pledge Burgunder, Alpha Lambda) Harriet Fulton (sister of Helen) Lucile Lindahl (sister of Elvine and Laurette) Lenore Talley (daughter of Cecil Benjamin Talley and sister of Jean) Mary Trowbridge (sister of Martha) and Catherine Prior (sister of

Betty Lou Currie, Eleanor Young, Jean Paine, and Margaret Glendinning are members of Fish Fans, campus swimming group, while Betty Power and Lenore Talley display their artistic talents in Orchesis, national dancing society. Lenore was also recently elected to the social committee of the freshman class.

Barbara Fairchild, as president of the A.W.S., is hostess for a regional convention of the Western Intercollegiate Association of Women students to be held here in April.

Seventeen Thetas were bid to Theta Sigma Phi's Matrix table banquet held March 25 in recognition of women who had given "outstanding service to their college."

Our annual Brothers' dinner was held March 13, with almost twenty brothers as guests of honor. Next important social function on our calendar is the spring formal in May, complete with an all-night serenade for the entire chapter afterwards.

Ida Mae Kirtland, president of Mu Phi Epsilon, will travel to Chicago in June as one of ten music delegates to the biennial convention of the fraternity.

JUDY McWHORTER

ALPHA TAU—Cincinnati

Alpha Tau is proud of her climb up the scholarship ladder from next to the bottom rung in June 1936 to the eighth rung in June 1937. The combined average of the nineteen sororities on campus is 3.58; Alpha Tau's average is 3.661 with a 3.92 goal to reach to beat Alpha Chi Omega who heads the list. Individual scholarship honors reveal Jane Brutton, Emily Gruen, Virginia Ficks, Ann Roberts, and Betty Jane Menefee on the Dean's list.

Marian Rule, our new president and convention delegate, was tapped by Mortar board March 11.

February 12 we welcomed sixteen girls into the bonds of Thetahood: Amy Alpaugh, Sue Backman, Muriel Beucus, Marion Brutton, Virginia Ficks, Phyllis Galloway, Virginia Hahn, Sarah Hezlep, Dorothy Johnson, Elaine Ledbetter, Betty Jane Menefee, Betty Renter, Ann Roberts, Helen Siekmann, Dorothy Wilson, and Ruth Wuerdeman. At the initiation banquet, Virginia Ficks proudly received the scholarship ring (by proxy) from Dale Case, who transferred to Leland-Stanford this year; and Susan Eastman handed down the activity plaque to Ann Roberts.

Ellanora Needles has the lead in the campus musical comedy Promenade this month. Ellanora has appeared on numerous radio programs and has done herself proud in Mummers, dramatic society. We are sorry to lose her to dramatic school in New York in the fall, but we know we'll soon be even more proud of her.

Believe it or not, Alpha Tau Thetas have taken to eating in the garage—but a garage remodeled into a charming dining room where we now all may gather for dinner on Monday nights, a tradition which up to now we have sadly missed, an occasional "supper meeting" being our lot.

We are looking forward with happy anticipation to our week on the Kentucky river where amidst boating, hiking, swimming, and singing we enjoy "Theta Camp." Three other fraternities from Cincinnati have their camps at the same time, and friendly sings and get-togethers foster a gay interfraternity spirit. Last summer our colored Henrietta's little girl amused us with her "swing" and taught everybody "truckin" and the "big apple." We wonder what will be the new rage in store for us this summer.

ALPHA PHI—Newcomb

February 10 Founders'-day was celebrated by a long delayed banquet at the Orleans club. Dixie Tharp acted as toastmistress. Louise Stovall gave a toast to the undergraduates, Mary Shapard gave a toast to the alumnæ, and Muriel Wilson Reis gave a toast to the whole chapter. In the traditional contest between the pledges, undergraduates, and alumnæ to produce the cleverest skit the alumnæ easily won the prize.

The pledges gave a tea for other pledges on campus February 12.

After chapter meeting February 14 the undergraduates, pledges, and some of the alumnæ ate supper at the rooms. Everyone enjoyed it. The suppers, which are now had twice a month, are looked forward to.

Mrs Athearn arrived February 18 for a short but helpful visit, very enjoyable on our part (and we hope on hers also). February 18 a tea was given for her at Elaine Gottschalk's to which major officers of other fraternities were invited. We all regretted Mrs Athearn's departure and hope that she will return for another visit soon.

February 17 was the opening of the senior art exhibition, in which Mary Walker and Elizabeth Baker were among those who had work on display.

February 18 the senior-faculty party was greatly enjoyed by our senior members.

Anne Denton was recently chosen as a member of the dormitory council.

A dance was given March 5 at the Shushane airport. A grand time was had by all present.

We are very proud of Mary Walker who had a painting given a place in a public building at Washington, D.C. Hers was one of the two paintings chosen at Newcomb.

March 4 the junior art exhibition was opened. Mary Shapard, Anne Denton, and Mary Utley had work on display.

The initiates of March 11 are: Helen Brown, Lois Ford, Dorothy Gaiennie, Martha Harper, Dorothy Singreen, Louise Stovall, and Anne Wyly.

We are proud to say that Katie Butt has been elected president of the senior class, and Mary Shapard president of the dormitory. So far Theta thus holds two of the four major offices on the campus. Also, Anne Denton is one of two nominees for president of the art school.

ALPHA CHI—Purdue

Because second semester rush, February 7-13, was informal, we had the privilege of giving entertainment of any type. First, we entertained the sixteen rushees at a delicious chicken dinner at Ford Hopkins' tearoom, and then we took them to a movie. Monday night five rushees were present at the second informal dinner which was Italian in theme. Three girls were entertained at Tuesday's informal buffet supper. Six girls were present at the final dinner, a lovely formal affair. Afterwards we talked and sang around the fireplace. Formal pledging took place Thursday afternoon for five girls: Bernadette Dygert, Fort Wayne; Jeanette Klitzke, Hammond; Roberta McEwan, Hammond; Marian Silver, Knightstown; and Margaret Stocker, Indianapolis.

Among our most promising freshmen is Ruth Bennett, who received one of the leading parts in Playshop's production, Hell bent for Heaven. She, Marjorie Starrett, and Margaret Stocker had dancing roles in the annual student union show. This year's production, Of thee I sing, was a great success and we were proud of our representation by three pledges.

Virginia Hulse, junior, has won two beauty laurels this year. She received the honor of being chosen a campus beauty, one of four coeds selected by the yearbook. Secondly, she was chosen by the Chicago Tribune as the foremost Purdue beauty and her picture appeared in the color section of the paper.

We were proud of Patricia Henry and Jane Ourand, who shared the honor of leading the grand march at sophomore cotillion on March 11.

District I convention, in Cincinnati February 26 and 27, was well represented by eleven Alpha Chi members. All who attended returned from Cincinnati enthusiastic over new ideas and new songs.

Another affair of prominence was the Founders'-day luncheon at Indianapolis on March 5. Our stunt, Thetalean Phantasy, was a take-off on ancient Greece. We came back feeling very proud that we are Thetas.

Three seniors have been chosen as members of the May Queen's Court, who, with the Queen, will reign supreme over May Day festivities on May 8. Those selected were Dorothy Martenet, Mary Alice Masters, and Elizabeth Pyke.

Pledges to Gold Peppers, activities honorary for women, were announced at the annual Gold Peppers dance, March 25. Betty Elstun, Betty Hiner, and Georganna Huber were chosen from the chapter.

We have been entertaining fraternities at trade dinners each week, but with the coming of spring, picnics will be favored over the dinners.

In the recent W.S.G.A. and W.A.A. elections two Thetas were elected to offices. In W.S.G.A. Ruth Hall was elected treasurer. Barbara Roderick was elected secretary of W.A.A.

Two events we anticipate with much pleasure are the chapter spring formal on May 21, and the visit of our District president, Mrs Maurer. We also hope to win the annual university Sing which is given in conjunction with May Day festivities.

ALPHA PSI—Lawrence

Alpha Psi has just climaxed a successful year with the election of Ellen Sweet to Phi Beta Kappa. Ellen is the second Theta to achieve that distinction this year, Marian Humleker having been chosen in the fall elections. Marian, retiring chapter president, was named one of the four best-loved senior women at the annual Colonial banquet held in February.

Twenty-one Alpha Psi pledges went under orders on March 5. The next day they entertained the chapter at a party at the home of Margaret Banta; games, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed. The week that followed was hilarious, and the pledges emerged from behind their dark glasses at the end of it tired but jubilant. Initiation took place on Sunday morning, March 13, at the Theta rooms. We had the honor of having with us on this occasion Mrs Grasett, Miss Green, Mary Alsted, president of Tau, and Jeanne Grasett. Past Grand president Mrs Banta took part in the initiation service. The banquet was held afterwards at the Conway hotel, with the national officers and Mrs Banta as speakers. These are the new initiates: Allyn-Joy Austin, Margaret Banta, Janet Basche, Anne Blakeman, Betty Bosser, Elizabeth Catlin, Audrey Galpin, Margaret Gilbert, Helen Glennon, Catherine Helmer, Jean Koffend, Mary Koffend, Harriette Peters, Miriam Lee Porter, Virginia Richardson, June Selvy, Mary Agnes Sheldon, Rosemary Tindall, Kathryn Tuchscherer, Katharine Tyler, and Monica Worsley.

The chapter has been active in dramatics this year. Jeanne Meyer was treasurer of Sunset, college dramatic association. In the late production, First lady, Betty Ann Johnson and Betty Bosser had leads, while June Selvy, Monica Worsley, Beth MacAlister, and Kathryn Tuchscherer also took prominent roles. In Christmas carol, Christmas production of Heelers, freshman dramatic club, were Kathryn Tuchscherer, Allyn-Joy Austin, Elizabeth Catlin, and Margaret Banta.

In the recent Lawrence Women's association elections, Betty Ann Johnson was named vice-president; Kathryn Tuchscherer, secretary; and Betty White, social chairman. Betty Ann Johnson is president of the judicial board of the L.W.A. Mary White serves on the executive committee. Betty Ann Johnson and Margaret Seip were on the debate squad. Margaret Banta was elected to Eta Sigma Phi (classics). June Selvy acted as co-chairman for Lawrence's spring prom and was on the staff of the college paper, the Laurentian. Margaret Brown, Betty Ann Johnson, Jeanne Meyer, and Florette Zuelke are members of the Lawrence A Cappella choir. Of eighteen campus beauties elected by the men, seven were Thetas: Allyn-Joy Austin, Ruth Gray, Marian Humleker, Barbara Rounds, Katharine Tyler, Betty White, and Mary Young.

In intersorority athletics, Alpha Psi has so far taken first in hockey, second in archery, first in tennis, first in volleyball, second in ping pong, and third in bowling. On the varsity basketball team, recently named, are Jean Doerr, Jean Lewis, Jeanne Ross, and Barbara Rounds.

We are happy to announce that, thanks to the cooperation of the alumnae, we have been able to repaper and paint the rooms and to install new cupboard space.

ALPHA OMEGA—Pittsburgh

On Sunday, March 13, Alpha Omega gathered early at the chapter house for the most important tea of the year—Ribbon Tea, at which we welcomed the new pledges and pinned on them the black-and-gold of Theta. This year the new girls who wear the pledge pin are Virginia Childress (sister of Beverly) Betty Coulson, Eleanor Euwer, Margaret Gibson, Harriet Glasser, Mary Ruth Goodwin, Katherine Koontz, Mary Lewis (sister of Margaret) Catherine Park, Rhoda Plummer, Frances Rowell and Ruth Sheppard.

On Saturday, March 19, new and old Thetas met at the house for an open-house radio dance, where the new punch ladle—given by the mothers' club—was the object of all honor.

The following Monday, the alumnae gave us a party at the chapter house, where we played games and talked over old times. Next on the social calendar was the supper-party given the chapter by the pledges on Sunday, April 10; and on April 30—initiation night—we gave the pledges an orchestra dance at the house. May 20 is of course our big date, our spring formal at the Field club, in the form of a supper dance this year.

Most of the spring campus events are yet to come up, the biggest one being the Spring festival, the first week in May. Our chapter is especially interested in this since our president, June Greene, is associate chairman of the week, and Beverly Childress is in charge of the tea dance—one of the several events during the week. The chapter also took a mighty interest in the Military Ball, where Betty Teal led the dance in time to Wayne King's music.

Though the letter so far has been concerned with social events, we haven't been remiss in the academic way, either. On Scholar's day, March 11, the following girls were tapped to membership in scholastic societies; to Alpha Kappa Delta (sociology) Beverly Childress; to Sigma Kappa Phi (foreign languages) Betty Adams, Mary Annette Campbell and Helen Hager; and to Pi Tau Phi (scholastic) Beverly Childress.

BETA BETA—Randolph-Macon

February 19 gave us 10 new Thetas: Mary Hilman, Sally Coburn, Frances Keliher, Jessie Alice Nettleton, Warren Land, Jane Guleke, Anne Adams, Sara Jane Reese, Marjorie Eckstein, and Carolyn McDaniel. A pledge banquet was given at Boonesboro Country club for the initiates a week before initiation and following initiation there was a banquet at the Virginia hotel.

At mid-semester we lost three girls: Adelaide Carter, who transferred to Oklahoma, Cile Bledsoe, who went to Texas university, and Dorothy McCormick, who is going to business school.

Beta Beta is proud of her three members in the dance group on campus. These girls are Grace Laylin, Anne Wallace Shropshire, and Betty Harris. The dance group gave a concert in Washington and was asked to go to Atlanta to give an exhibition in April.

Betty Harris did exhibition skating at the Dartmouth winter carnival.

Beta Beta gives a certain amount of money each year to the college library for the purchase of a rare book. The presentation for this year has just been made. Several valuable rare books have been given and we hope this tradition of our chapter will continue.

The fourteen women's fraternities on campus are giving a Panhellenic dance in April with a new and different theme, in the form of a barn dance.

BETA GAMMA—Colorado State

Pledges were hostesses on a stream-lined train at the annual "Katsup" preceding initiation. In the course of the journey, breakfast was served to the chapter. On the following Saturday pledges entertained the chapter with the pledge breakfast. The next day, February 13, we formally initiated Grace Childress, Eleanor Lee Deming, Mildred and Margaret Hamil, Betty Gay Hamnet, Maxine Hoge, Sally Hartman, Nancy Jane Rundle, Betty Hubbard, Jean DeVoe, and Charlotte Vande Steeg.

In celebration of Valentine's day, we held our sweetheart dinner dance at the Northern hotel. At the dance Betty Gay Hamnet was awarded the freshman honor plaque, given to the pledge most outstanding in scholarship, activities, and fraternity loyalty.

Student Honor day really was an "honor day" for Theta this year. Georgia Lee Seyster was one of three girls receiving a bid to Omicron Nu (home economics). She was the only "Greek" chosen out of the entire home economics department. Alpha Chi Alpha (journalism) selected Mary Anne Inglefield and Grace Childress. Out of the eight outstanding seniors on the campus tapped for Pace-makers were Maxine Herron, who also received a bid to Phi Kappa Phi, and Josephine Hoge.

At the Women's assembly, we won second prize for the skits. The theme was a country school. At an impressive candlelight ceremony held during the assembly, Julia Shellabarger and Georgia Lee Seyster were tapped for Tau Iota Omega (senior women). Julia was also elected vice-president of the student body. Mary Anne Inglefield was elected to Hesperia (junior women). Those chosen for Spur, pep organization for sophomore women, were Mildred Hamil, Margaret Hamil, Sally Hartman, and Ruth Hahn, whom we are pledging April 13.

BETA DELTA—University of Arizona

Flying new kites since March 20 are Katherine Boswell, Sally Jane Davis, Chandler Darden, Jean Hamilton, Lois Kirby, Janice Parke, Jeanne Richey, Alice Tweed, Helen DeMund, Patsy Penny, Teresa Stelzer, Katherine and Margaret Kiddie, Janet Gould, Dorothy Easton, and Constance Foss. On February 21 Elinor Beckett was initiated.

Janet Gould was initiated with the 1870 Beta chapter badge which belonged to her grandmother, Alice Springer Fitch, and which she received from her mother, Helen Fitch Gould, ten hours before the ceremony. This was the only badge the second Theta chapter had for years, each new initiate wearing it in turn. When, later, the members bought their own badges, Alice Springer, as president of the house, was given the privilege of buying this one.

The chief differences between old and modern badges are the size, and the fact and the old pin is less than two-thirds as thick as those today.

Helen Fitch Gould never wore the badge as an active member. Her mother died when Helen was only six years old, and the badge went to Ella Rawles Springer, her aunt.

We are proud to announce as new pledges this semester Otilia McHugh, Superior, and Sylvia Stauffer, Phoenix. Sylvia had to leave soon after pledging, we are sorry to say.

We are happy to welcome back to our fold this semester Margaret Harvey, who attended Kansas State the first part of the year. We are extremely sorry to have lost Alice Walker, Shirley Snyder, Josephine Scoville, and Janet Gould.

To fill us with joy came the report that Theta had topped all other fraternities on the campus in scholarship last semester by making an average of 2.52.

Our pledge class entertained us in February with a lovely and most successful dinner dance at the Old Pueblo club.

It was our good fortune to have two charming guests in February. Mrs Athearn paid us an all too brief visit, which we hope she will repeat soon (minus the "brief").

Mrs Clarke, our District president, stayed with us for two most enjoyable and profitable days. During her stay we entertained the alumnae with a buffet supper.

We are still excited about Janet Gould's being the fourth girl from this campus ever to be initiated into Hammer and Coffin, national humor group. Suzanne Hamilton was initiated into Wranglers, literary society. Rose Marie Sanguinetti is now secretary of the W.A.A. Theta, through the efforts of Laura Morgan, Betty Bolton, Margaret Kiddie, and Constance Foss, won the intramural tennis tournament. Laura also won in the mixed doubles tournament, and is again a member of the varsity team.

Kitty Maud Buoy was one of the attendants to the Desert Queen at the beautiful Coronation Ball, having been chosen one of the five most lovely girls on the campus.

Janet Gould was chosen as outstanding pledge at our initiation dinner, and Dorothy Easton was given honorable mention.

BETA EPSILON—Oregon State

Beta Epsilon's winter formal came in the midst of an already busy social season. Especially effective in our "winter wonderland" theme were the windows of the chapter house, which were frosted and encircled with wide ruffled strips of wine and silver cellophane.

The week following our house dance, Elspeth Petrie announced her marriage to Leon Sterling, varsity football player. The chapter entertained for her with a kitchen shower.

On St. Valentine's day freshmen of the house entertained members with a dinner party. As a feature of the dinner the usual order was reversed. Impromptu entertainment was furnished by upperclassmen.

The first exchange dinner of the year was held on February 17. Part of us were guests at the Kappa Sigma house, and the remaining Kappa Sigmas had dinner at the Theta house.

At a recent spring fashion show, one of the outstanding models was Miss Gertrude Strickland, young and smart-looking Theta faculty member. Miss Strickland has served as pledge adviser for Beta Epsilon, and is assistant professor of clothing and textiles at Oregon State college.

Nine members and pledges had a grade point average of B or above at the end of winter term. This list includes Kathleen Aston, Ashby Rauch, Mona Sehl, Ruth Sterns, Mary Drinker, Alice Wiesendanger, Marjory Fendall, Virginialee Shaver, and Harriet Kleinsorge.

Looking ahead into spring term, we see women's week-end in early May. This is an all-campus project in which the students play hosts to their mothers for the week-end. Alice Wiesendanger is serving as chairman of the invitation committee.

On Junior week-end, the week following women's week-end, it is the custom to entertain high school seniors, prospective students of Oregon State college. Frances McBroom, rushing chairman, with her assistant, Betty Bain, is making plans for accommodating guests at the chapter house.

We are very sorry to miss at the beginning of spring term two members. Roberta Cook has returned to her home in San Francisco, and Virginialee Shaver is spending the spring months touring the southern states with her mother. Genevieve Reed, an alumna of Beta Epsilon who boarded with us winter term while taking post graduate courses, did not return for the spring term.

As the event of the near future we are anticipating with pleasure a visit from Mrs Grasett. Everyone is busy with plans for entertaining her while she is with us.

BETA ZETA—Oklahoma State

With the knowledge that Theta won the sorority scholarship cup again this year, we happily began the spring semester. Since this is the third consecutive year that we have won the award, we will receive a large trophy cup which will remain with us permanently.

Last month Theta won second place in the sorority basketball tournament, but we are still first in the race for the sports cup. Beta Zeta also won the finals for the sorority bridge tournament with Alice Margaret Hopkins and Virginia Davis playing for us.

Saturday afternoon, March 19, the Thetas gave a spring dansant. The house was decorated with spring flowers, white lattice-work, and rubber plants. In the basement was a lounge with a black oil-cloth bar covered with gold Greek letters, where punch was served. This is the only dance given by Beta Zeta during the year. The week-end of our dance, we had as our guest Mrs Fisher, District president, who gave us many suggestions for next year.

Those initiated March 26 were: Thelma Burnell, Margaret Ledbetter, Marilyn Olsen, Winifred Randall, Muriel Ronk, Elaine Witt, Patricia Gosselin, Roberta Henson, Alice Madden, Jean Maggard, Annie Laura Moores, Rose Marie Price, Jean Steitz, Cecyl Jones, Jane Thatcher, Elvira Wallin, and Eleanor Young.

BETA ETA—Pennsylvania

The first part of our new semester program was, of course, initiation. On March 6, at the home of Mary Ellen Mercer in Swarthmore, we initiated Jean Thomas, Ruth Francksen, Ann Bounds, Bernice Yount, Harriet Snyder, Cynthia Kirk, Lucille Worthington, and Jean Laurie. Unfortunately, Françoise Jones was unable to be initiated because of illness. A banquet followed at the Ingle-Neuk inn in Swarthmore with Virginia Kinsman, Eleanor Champion and Nellie Smith as speakers. Jean Thomas was awarded the scholarship ring for highest average among the pledges.

Helen Jean Moore and Isabelle Graff spent February 18 and 19 with us. They, Emily Champion and Florence Froborg were members of the February graduating class. Florence has been Beta Eta's particular pride and joy of the year, having been senior class president, a Phi Beta Kappa, and the possessor of an almost-A average which has us all green with envy.

Mary Ellen Mercer was chairman of Mid-Winter Ball and made it a huge success; she is now working on the Record book, of which she is editor. Agnes Conant, who returned in February, is assisting her. Betty Slesman has just been made junior-helper of the university camp for settlement children.

Plans are under way for a card party, a theater party for the new initiates, and our spring formal May 27. In addition we are continuing our "at homes" every other Thursday for friends and alumnae. Convention committees and building committees are meeting fast and furiously. We are all waiting with bated breath to see whether or not our plans for a new house next fall are going to materialize. And of course since Spring Lake is so near and we have charge of the entertainment on the opening night of convention, this is our most important coming event. You can imagine how thrilling it is going to be to have it practically at our back door, so we all will have a chance to attend and join in the fun!

On March 25 and 26 Georgia Powers, Beta Phi, visited us and brought us news of the Penn State chapter.

BARBARA LANDER

BETA THETA—Idaho

On March 6 Beta Theta was happy to welcome to active membership: Loeta Åkers, Eleanor Axtell, Betty Blake, Louise Howell, Helen Buttram, Patricia Churchill, Sabey Driggs, Betty Hall, Anna Claire Herman, Jo McKissick, Lucille Marshall, Betty Robb, and Mrs Marie Freehafer (member of petitioning group).

We were happy to share our Founders'-day celebration on February 13 with Alpha Sigma at a fireside at Beta Theta's chapter house.

Tulip time, gay windmills, and wooden shoes gave the background for the upper-class formal dinner dance at the chapter house. Underclassmen entertained at a Valentine fireside with dancing, games in the recreation room, and special refreshments.

Pledges honored members at a fireside. We have had a grand series of parties for the faculty this year. One of the most enjoyable was a fireside at which we entertained twelve faculty members and their wives.

Louise Paulsen will take the part of Yum Yum in the Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedy, Mikado, to be given the first of May. A truckload of Sigma Alpha Iota members, national music honorary, serenaded us and called Betty Torgenson to join them as a new pledge to their group.

BETA IOTA—Colorado

It is fun to look back on winter quarter and on the good times we had. The night that stands out clearest is that of Founders'-day banquet, Friday, February 18, at the Brown Place hotel in Denver. A delightful program was given by Beta Gamma for our entertainment. The last of the quarter, in retrospect, is a jumble of showers and wedding parties given for Annabelle Turner, Betty Jane Tesdell, and Roylynn Hurlburt. Roylynn's engagement was announced February 9.

It was a thrill, to hear our Theta trio—Peg Johnson, Roylynn Hurlburt, and Reges Clark—singing on the broadcast from Denver which was a preview for our annual student musical comedy. Emily Jane Fritch, Betty Stabler, and Alliene Hardy were also in the production.

Formal pledging was held on January 31 for Mary Forbes and Caroline Combs, both of Long Beach, California.

The Theta skit, a take-off on Snow White, was chosen as one of the ten best for the Women's League vaudeville to be given in April. The intramural badminton championship was carried off by Marion Armstrong and Reges Clark. Reges was also elected to be national advertising manager for the Silver and Gold, campus newspaper.

The Junior prom was made more exciting for us when Marion Armstrong was chosen as first attendant to the Queen.

BETA KAPPA—Drake

In Kollege Kapers of 1938 (a big success) the romantic lead was taken by Ada Beth Peaker; one of the hit songs was written by Ada Beth; Ruth Freed played a leading comedy role; the girls trio consisted of Alice Yost, Kay Wenaas, and Harriet Nourse; Lois Bumgardner and Eleanor Miller were in the dancing chorus; and Lois also did a dance specialty. Another member of the cast was Beulah Moore.

The fine arts college presented the opera Faust, by Charles Gounod. The leading role of Marguerite was played by Ada Beth Peaker. Parts of the opera were broadcast on a coast-to-coast hook-up.

Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman women's scholarship) has been organized on our campus. Ruth Jones, pledge, is president. Theta has a large representation in this new organization. While speaking of scholarship, the Theta who had the highest grade average in the active chapter and wears the scholarship bracelet is Eloise Marsh.

Twelve girls were initiated March 20: Hazel Jacobs, Madeline Flint, Ruth Freed, Betty Poston, Phyllis Wilson, Marguerite Sternberg, Martha Jane Backman, Eleanor Miller, Lucille Schoen, Margaret Ann Hagensick, Lucille Botts, and Betty Coolidge. Theta Alpha Phi (dramatics) initiated Martha Winterhoff.

Thetas again captured the trophy for the annual Sweetheart sing, held in chapel March 30. Alice Yost is credited for the arranging and directing.

Thetas are three of the six most beautiful women in the university, announced at the annual Ballyhoo Ball. They are: Helen Smitley, Mary Jane Marxer, and Polly Frost. Marjorie Rock was named Queen of all the pledges on the campus at the pledge dance last week.

Ladies of the jury is the next play to be presented by the department of drama. Ruth Freed has been cast in the leading role.

Theta Sigma Phi (journalism) pledged Betty Poston, women's sports editor of the Quax, Drake yearbook.

BETA LAMBDA—William and Mary

Beta Lambda is happy to announce the initiation of Nancy Johnson, Katherine Hoover, Hope Toulon (sister of Dorothy) Ruth Barton, Frances Reider, Betty Foster (daughter of Helen Houghton Foster, Epsilon) Virginia Markell, Kitty Jane Britton, Dorothy Dickie, Charlotte Bagot, and Katherine Lockwood, on February 18. Mrs Foster and Dorothy Toulon were present at initiation. The initiation banquet was held at the Williamsburg inn on February 19, and a reception for the initiates at the house on February 20.

Seven members of the chapter went to the Founders'-day luncheon given by the Richmond alumnæ. Convention was the main topic of conversation, especially plans for the beach party with which the Richmond alumnæ are helping us.

Mrs. Boyce, District president, was with us from February 17 to 19. Her visit was much too short, but we're hoping to have her back soon.

Sally Hall has been elected president and Anne Layton secretary of the executive council of the W.S.G.A.

Beta Lambda emerged from eight exciting intersorority basketball games, tied for first place.

The long-looked-forward-to operetta, The Mikado, was given April 17, 18, 19. Jane Upchurch had the second lead; Barbara Bundy, Carol McCoy, and Florence Signaigo worked on the sets; Roberta Rosendale was costume assistant; Elaine Wooddy was on the costume committee; and Gwen Evans worked on make-up; so we were well represented in all phases of the production.

Many alumnæ have returned for visits, all of which were too short. Connie Land, Ellen Latané, Bertie Fox Courtney, Nelia Beverley, Dorothy Toulon, Janet McKinley, Betty Schwerin Wilson, and Elizabeth Herman have all been down since January.

Jean Marshall, Gamma Epsilon, came to see us in March with much interesting news about our baby chapter in Ontario.

Elizabeth Boyd, Lansdowne, Pennsylvania, was pledged on March 14.

Carol McCoy, Ada Stuart, Frances Reider, Sally Hall, Kay Ewing, Florence Signaigo, and Jean Clarahan are on the Dean's list.

BETA MU—Nevada

The annual Mackay day celebration in honor of Clarence H. Mackay, the University of Nevada's greatest benefactor, and founder of the Mackay School of Mines, is the highlight of the spring semester at Nevada. The Mackay day dance has always been a costume dance, but with this year's new ruling that students must wear clothes of the late 1800's to classes Friday, and to all Saturday's festivities as well, we have been raiding attics and searching frantically through forgotten old trunks for "little numbers" that in Grandmother's day were considered just the thing for street wear. Lucky is the gal who can find such an outfit, and an elaborate ball dress as well, and then get into them. We find that we are broad-shouldered amazons in comparison with Grandmother and Great-aunt Elsa!

Emily Tholl was elected to Cap and Scroll this semester. Thetas elected to campus offices are Frances Nichols, secretary of Associated Students; Elizabeth Kohlhoss, Y.W.C.A. treasurer; and Janet Holcomb and Kay Dalzell, Y.W.C.A. cabinet members. Shirley Fuetsch, Dorothy Atcheson, and Elizabeth Best were named on the varsity basketball team. Kathleen Starratt attended the California state championship ski meet and placed in three events. At the international ski competitions held at Sun Valley, Idaho, she was unfortunately injured in the down-hill race, the first event on her schedule, but came in at fifth place.

Our Saint Patrick's day dance was a huge success, and we are busy now planning our spring formal, which will mark the close of an eventful semester.

COVEY WILLS

BETA NU—Florida

This week ends the most eventful quarter of the year, to date, one filled with both scholastic and social activities. Fifteen girls attended Military Ball at the University of Florida, at which event Amelia Avant and Lorene Holabird were sponsors. Mary Elizabeth Baker was voted a member of the Queen's court for general college week-end at the university, and two girls, Lorene Holabird and Dorothy Barr, have been chosen for the beauty section of the Seminole, university annual.

Panhellenic hop on March 19 was the center of a gala-week-end. We had a tea dance preceding the formal, besides which many of the girls attended pop dances and other informal functions around campus. The honor of being in charge of decorations for the hop was given to Ruth Fisher, and she did a commendable job. An archway of stars transformed the gymnasium into a realistic midsummer night scene. Ruth also contributes illustrations to the Distaff, campus quarterly, and assisted in presenting a puppet show recently.

Continuing our series of teas for other sororities, we have entertained Delta Delta Delta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Zeta, and Delta Phi Epsilon. We were honorees at a tea given by Delta Delta Delta in February. This week we are entertaining several members of the faculty.

Amelia Avant had a solo part in the Glee club performance given at a local theater. Junior Minstrels, which was held on March 18, was a huge success. The Theta trio, composed of Anna Laurie Sanchez, Dot Barr, and Pat Campbell, took part, accompanied by the chapter pianist, Ruth Williams. Katherine Sommers had a speaking role, while Mary Elizabeth Rivero and Elizabeth Miller participated in the dancing.

With spring came elections, which ushered in a new system of open politics. Mary Frances (Pat) Campbell was elected a member of lower judiciary court.

Four girls, Dolores Fleischer, Betty Gamble, Mary Elizabeth Rivero, and Virginia Balkcom, were "tapped" by sophomore council.

We are proud to say that our scholastic rating on campus moved up six places this semester. By virtue of their work in French, Lillian Baker, Betty Gamble, and Elinor Knowles have been invited to a scholarship tea. Sara Frances Blackwell and Ilma La Bar attended a tea given by Sigma Delta Pi for outstanding Spanish students. Virginia Balkcom, having the highest scholastic average among the pledge group, was given her badge by the chapter. Betty Gamble was rewarded for compiling the most activity points by seeing her name on the activities cup.

Initiation services were held March 12 for eighteen girls: Mary Elizabeth Baker, Virginia Balkcom, Eleanor Beckstrom, Mary Connell, Dolores Fleischer, Betty Gamble, Allison Harrison, Frances Kirkland, Elinor Knowles, Mary Anne McCalla, Dorene Medlin, Mary Beth O'Steen, Jarrett Parker, Mary Elizabeth Rivero, Christine Russ, Maribel Savage, Katherine Sommers, and Geraldine Williams. Following the ceremony, we had a lovely banquet at the Cherokee hotel, presenting the new initiates with corsages of pansies and gifts. With all our new kites safely started on their maiden flight, we are looking forward to marking a spirited finis to this year.

BETA XI—California at Los Angeles

After a welcome vacation between semesters, Beta Xi swung into rush week, at the conclusion of which Margaret Allen of Van Nuys and Barbara Shafer, sister of Sue, were pledged. On March 28 we pledged Jean Sutherland.

The second week of March was spent in orientating the following fifteen pledges for initiation March 13: Meri Arms, Jocelyn Ball, Julia Dorn, Margery Hall, Nancy Folks, Mary Delaney, Lucile Otis, Barbara Williams, Jean MacGregor, Virginia Maltman, Marguerite Gale, Aleene Zacher, Ruth Nelson, Antonia Churchill, Elizabeth Lord.

Socially, we have been quite busy, entertaining the faculty for dinner, and giving a tea in honor of Mrs Karl Lobdell, in celebration of the anniversary of our good fortune in gaining her presence as our wonderful house mother.

We are looking forward to a much needed spring vacation at Balboa—how welcome will be those four days of fun and relaxation!

Beta Xi wishes to announce the affiliation of Beth Welsh of Beta Rho. We are happy to have Beth with us as another strong member of our chapter.

We are proud to announce the initiation of 25 girls on March 13. They are: Margaret Ann Farrell, (sister of Mary Katherine) Helen Banger (daughter of Mary Cox Banger) Martha Teeters (sister of Lois and Frances) Eleanor Bjorklund (sister of Elaine) Marjorie Meerdink, Carolyn Reifel, Marjorie Alberti, Phyllis Cain, Marion Capwell, Ruth Christianson, Miriam Barnes, Marion Cornell, Eleanor Deitchler, Maxine Fuchs, Jeanne Gilchrist, Marion Jacoby, Janice James, Winifred Johnson, Mary Irene McLaughlin, Dorothy Price, Betty Ann Purvis, Frances Roper, Virginia Snyder, Cleo Wales, and Marianne Woodhouse.

Betty Garland was chosen by the engineers as one of the Queen's attendants at the Mecca Ball. Betty and Betty Saar were two of the six glamour girls of the campus, selected by a campuswide poll sponsored by Frivol.

Marion Jacoby and Rachael Matthews are candidates for Pep Queen to be presented at the university party, Pep Jamboree. Katheryn Wood is on the party committee. Rachael was elected secretary of Pi Epsilon Pi auxiliary at the last meeting.

Marianne Woodhouse was leading lady in Penny wise, presented in the drawing room theatre. She will also be in Stage door to be given this spring.

Our candidates for Hawkeye beauty Queens are Betty Ann Purvis and Marion Cornell. Beth Browning and Mary Frances Cusack were recently appointed to serve on the Hawkeye business staff for the remainder of the year. When announcement was made of the freshman orientation committees for next year, Theta had one leader, three assistants, and ten on reserve committees.

In spite of the rumor that men like their girls quiet and meek, the athletic spirit is still raging. We won second in the women's basketball tournament, and after this good showing several of the girls are on the university intramural team. We are now practicing for finals in pingpong and tennis.

For the past two months we have been engaged in a "get-acquainted-with-the-faculty" campaign. Once each week we have several guests and we are finding these faculty members very interesting and actually human!

Spring has rejuvenated not only our wardrobes, but also our furnishings. New fire-side chairs have been purchased and a new rug is to be laid during Easter vacation. Everyone is thrilled at the thought of redecoration, and complete plans are being made to refurnish the two main rooms during the summer. Alumnæ have just given us some good books for our new bookshelves, too.

The last of Theta's social events for the year will be the annual spring dinner dance April 23. It will be at the Silver Shadow—the much publicized night club of Iowa City.

We have added one more silver loving cup to our trophies, due to the expert marksmanship of Mary Bowers and Peg Clemett in the rifle tournament for all sororities and dormitories on campus.

Other honors go to Dorothy Hasselbring, who has been initiated into Omicron Nu (home economics) and Evelyn Siebert, tapped for Tau Sigma (scholarship local) for liberal arts, applied science, and medical biology.

College elections were held February 24 and we were proud to have Jean Widick as the new secretary to the home economics club, and Janet O'Hara on the union board.

We have enjoyed our share of social functions, lately. February 20 a buffet supper was given for the actives and their guests. Soon after, the alumnæ gave a tea in the house for alumnæ of other Panhellenic fraternities. Also the pledges gave a tea for us.

March 2 we were honored by a visit from Miss L. Pearle Green. A tea was given in her honor.

We have four girls on Student government for the coming year. Betsy McLeod is president of Brown house, Rosana Brewer, president of Pegram house, Jean Wallace, treasurer of Student government, and Elizabeth Murray, sophomore representative to Student government.

Frances Briggs was elected president of the W.A.A. and Jean Wallace elected to Delta Phi Rho Alpha (athletics).

Beta Rho has climbed to second place in scholarship on the campus. We feel that this is an accomplishment of which to be proud.

Mary Brent Holland is Theta's representative in the May court this year.

We are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to April 18, the day for a dance given the chapter and their dates at the Country club by Mary Duke Biddle.

Beta Rho has been given the chairmanship of the annual inter-fraternity-sorority sing to be held May 9. We were in second place last spring and would like very much to win this year.

BETA SIGMA—Southern Methodist

When the semi-annual scholarship report came out, we found Kappa Alpha Theta had moved from seventh to fifth place among the thirteen social fraternities for women on our campus. We are proud of Anne Hughston, elected to Gamma Sigma (education) and Ella Marie Cain and Elizabeth Young, elected to Alpha Rho Tau (art).

Subsequent to the rites we had a grand get-together at the home of Margaret Cole, where we ate supper and sang Theta songs. We have, by the way, begun practicing in earnest for the sorority sing-song which will take place on May 2. This year we will be satisfied with nothing less than first place.

Gerry Boggess from Beta Beta and Jean Crawford from Alpha Theta are now formally affiliated with Beta Sigma. We hope that they will enjoy being with us as much as we enjoy having them.

Mrs Fisher, District president, spent an all-too-short visit with us in March. It was a pleasure to have her and we hope she will return soon.

Mary Brown has resigned as alumna adviser to become president of Dallas alumnae. We sincerely want to thank her for the many times she has helped us and for the patience she has had with us. We want to welcome Hannah Pitt who has taken her place.

The chapter is eagerly making preparations for its formal dance, which will take place April 1 at the Dallas Country club. A dinner will precede the dance for Thetas and their dates.

BETA UPSILON—British Columbia

We were all delighted to have Mrs Temple with us February 17 and 18. Her advice to each of the chapter officers was indeed helpful. We are eagerly looking forward to Mrs Grasett's visit on April 6 and 7.

We held our spring formal March 11 at the Jericho Country club. Everyone agreed that it was a great success.

The Mothers' club held a tea at the home of Mrs Martin March 1. They decided that each member should earn five dollars for the house fund before the next meeting in August.

The Panhellenic rushing rules have been drastically changed this year. The general idea for future rushing is this: In the spring fraternities hold "open house" teas on separate days. Any freshette may come and stay for the afternoon. Then in the fall there is no form of entertainment. The freshette sends in a list of the groups in which she is most interested and the fraternities send in a list of the girls they would like. If a freshette's name is not on the list of any fraternity in which she is interested she is given the names of those that do have her on their list. The new rules were voted to be put into effect next year. The idea was worked out by Clare Brown, a Gamma Phi Beta alumna, who is now assistant dean of women on our campus.

JOANNE BROWN

29 March 1938

New addresses: Sheila Tait MacConnell (Mrs Norman) 1226 Roslyn rd. Vancouver, B.C. Canada.

BETA PHI—Penn State

Rushing season ended with a party February 12, at which Beta Phi proudly displayed her talent. It must have been effective, for every girl who attended returned the next afternoon for her black and gold ribbons.

The fifteen pledges are: Ruth Kistler (sister of Jane) Charlotte Lowe and Jean Taylor, State College; Elinor Weaver, Lancaster; Betty Long, Bellefonte; Eleanor Benfer, Selinsgrove; Gertrude Hellmers, Langeloth; Margret Crawford, Washington, D.C.; Eleanor Fagans, Morrisville; Jeanne Smith, Galeton; Audrey Schoemmell, Upper Darby; Dorothy Berry and Emma Jennings, Philadelphia; Betty Brown, Reading; Leslie Lewis, Rutherford, New Jersey.

The annual pledge dinner-dance was held this year at the Nittany Lion on February 19. After dinner, everyone attended the wrestling matches, then returned to dance to the music of Bill Bottorf.

These future members of Beta Phi have kept us right in the front with their activities and honors. Ruth Kistler, Eleanor Benfer, and Betty Long were initiated into Lakionides (physical education). Elinor Weaver and Eleanor Benfer are members of Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman scholarship) with averages of 2.65 each. Elinor Weaver was freshman senator on the student government last semester, and was recently chosen sophomore senator for the coming year.

Our upperclassmen have collected their share of honors, too. Hermione Hunt was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi; Jane Kistler accepted a bid to the Ellen H. Richards home economics club; Peggy Jones was chosen junior senator for the coming year; Jane Eames, after appearing in many major productions, was initiated into Players, and Phyllis Gordon was nominated to the junior board of Collegian, campus newspaper.

The new Thespian show, Hey Rube, has Thetas in three out of four of the female rôles. They are: Leslie Lewis, Peggy Scheaffer, and Hermione Hunt. Helen Anderson has charge of personnel for the Thespian shows.

Two cups have been placed on our mantel recently. One represents our prowess in basketball, while the other, a permanent part of our collection after three successive winnings, shows that we can hold our own against all bridge players.

The new five million dollar building program has surrounded our house with mud and ditches, until by now, it is common knowledge that a Theta on this campus may be known by the mud on her shoes.

BETA PSI—McGill

Beta Psi's formal dance was given on March 5 in the Prince of Wales salon of the Windsor hotel. The Bunk-House Boys provided surprise entertainment during supper and did not forget to pass around the hat.

Two more professors' teas were thoroughly enjoyed by professors and Thetas alike.

The Royal Victoria college common room was redecorated this spring, and a housewarming for the new room was given in the form of a tea at which Principal and Mrs Douglas were guests of honor.

McGill Thetas have taken prominent places in theatrical activities. For the Red and White revue Norma Bonter was among the fortunate few of the Red and White chorus, Dorothy Pugh took part in the skit of Cinderella, Cathleen Chard did scenery and Betty Whitehead make-up; and in the English department children's play, The sleeping Beauty, Betty Whitehead took the lead and Dorothy McCaig played the part of the Black Fairy.

Helen Kydd, Beta Psi's new president, is also president of the McGill Women's glee club. Dorothy Kydd is vice-president of this association and Enid Sprott is librarian.

Mercy Kellogg was a member of the committee organizing the Spinsters' Spree, the very successful women's union dance held on January 28.

In athletics Doris Banfill is making a name for Theta on the women's intercollegiate hockey team. Virginia Balko played intramural basketball; and Barbara Black, Winnifred Dundas, Doris Banfill, and Mercy Kellogg were successful in passing examinations for bronze certificates from the Royal life-saving society.

Dorothy McCaig presented papers to the Historical club and the Literature society on "The history and theory of Social Credit" and "The literary product in satire of the Social Credit movement."

BETA OMEGA—Colorado College

Our spring formal is to be held on top of Cheyenne mountain. It certainly promises to be an outstanding affair and we are looking forward to it.

Theta's candidates for Beauty Queen are Betty Boerstler, Jane Priest, and Barbara Bayard. We only wish they could all win.

GAMMA GAMMA—Rollins

Thetas prominent in the realm of dramatics are Mary Acher, who gave a splendid performance in The romantic age by A. A. Milne, and Victoria Morgan, who has been cast in The passing of the third floor back.

June Reinhold has returned to college after a prolonged illness. Sarah Smith has left us to work in New York as a model. We are also going to miss Kay Burgher, who is leaving for her home in Tulsa.

We are proud to say that our ex-prexy, Betty Myers, rode away with a second ribbon in the largest horseshow in Florida.

On Honors day Priscilla Smith and Mary Acher were tapped for Libra. Pris is the only girl in the history of the college to be tapped in her junior year.

GAMMA DELTA—Georgia

Gamma Delta's first year is almost ended. We are proud of the record that lies behind us. Nineteen girls were pledged and ten were initiated. Our scholastic standing averaged third on the campus, our athletic record was high, and we can justly say that our foothold is firm.

Since spring holidays (which included a Gamma Delta house party at Brunswick Beach) things have happened fast and a full schedule lies ahead. The next few weeks include several introductory rush parties—just a taste to the high school girls of what Theta parties are like. A picture show "get together" (at which we all meet in front of the theater, and pile in as one big happy mob) and a waffle breakfast will start the session off. A tea for Pi Gamma Phi, a colonizing group, will also be part of our social program.

Thetas winning honors are: Marion Ehrhardt, elected to Theta Sigma Phi (journalism); Margie Schmisser, photography editor of the University magazine; and Eleanor Maddock who was elected secretary of Y.W.C.A. and vice-president of Student Government association.

We are happy to announce the initiation of two new girls—Betty Jones, Atlanta, and Catherine O'Neal, Blackshear.

Gamma Delta is exceedingly "one track minded" at present over the possibilities of, and plans for a house. We are working with united efforts to make our dreams come true.

GAMMA EPSILON—Western Ontario

With the success of our formal dance fresh in our minds and with a fuller understanding of Theta in our hearts after our first Founders'-day supper meeting, we entered our week of rushing with unusual enthusiasm and inspiration. And the ten sparkling parties certainly reflected just that. The pièce de résistance was the Circus party at which the gesticulations of the girls in the sawdust ring, K A @ balloons, peanuts and very pink lemonade had the customers really rolling in the aisles. By the end of the week everyone was tired but satisfied that we had done a good job.

The Honour society has just published its list of members for this year. Only three girls were elected and we are proud to announce that two of them were Thetas—Margaret Homuth and Verta Kenerson. This annual list is composed of ten seniors who are considered to have contributed most to the advancement and betterment of Western during their college careers.

Verta Kenerson was also one of the two girls on the committee for the Arts Ball, Western's most important social function. Jean Ferguson was to have had a part in the convocation play Will Shakespeare but due to an unfortunate accident was forced to give way to an understudy at the last moment. However, our faith remains in one piece since Jean is one of those girls who does everything well—even to breaking her ankle—and we are still amply represented by Patricia Duff, who also has a part.

For the third consecutive year, Western's senior girls' basketball team captured the intercollegiate championship and the coveted symbol thereof—the "Bronze Baby." Our own Creena Wallace was captain of the team and Mary Cardiff was one of its outstanding players.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE

New York	Fellowship
Pittsburgh	Research
Indianapolis	Publicity
Spokane	Ways and Means
Nashville	Ways and Means
Los Angeles	Undergraduate Loans Chairman

Los Angeles Committee:

Chairman: Grace W. Lavayea, 836 South Irolo st. Los Angeles, Calif.

Secretary: Helen Pratt, 1257 4th av. Los Angeles, Calif.

Financial Secretary: Ray Hanna, 216 S. Manhattan pl. Los Angeles, Calif.

Procedure for application. For information and application blanks, for undergraduate loans, write the corresponding secretary, Miss Helen Pratt, 1257 4th av. Los Angeles, Calif. A clear statement concerning needs, activities, health, scholarship, amount desired, and prospects for repayment will aid the committee in consideration of an application. Letters of recommendation from the chapter president and from an alumna adviser are requested. Loans are made for $50 and larger amounts. Interest is 4 per cent payable annually. Endorsement of note of beneficiary by two financially responsible parties, preferably Thetas, is required. Each applicant is considered as a special case. Money is available for loans. Applications will be accepted from graduate students as well as undergraduates.

All checks for gifts to the Fund should be made payable to Los Angeles alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta and sent to the financial secretary, Miss Ray Hanna, 216 S. Manhattan pl. Los Angeles, Calif.

A contribution to this Fund is a gift in perpetuity. The Fund is constantly revolving; it is never spent. Fellowships are maintained only by accrued interest on principal. The Loan and fellowship committee endeavors to meet the pressing financial needs of undergraduate Thetas. Without assistance, many Thetas could not obtain their degrees which will increase their earning capacity. Resources within ourselves, developed by education, are of supreme importance in this present reorganization of society. Donors to this Fund are meeting the national challenge for the maintenance of educational standards. They are participating in a creative program, so vital to our fraternity, community, and nation.
